Two more hearings on recalls set for March 29th

By Dennis Mansfield
Managing Editor

Two more meetings of the Crawford County Clarity Board have been scheduled to review language for recall petitions against county commissioners Larry Mattis and Loren Goodale.

Both hearings will be on March 29 at the County Building, with the hearing for Goodale set for 7 p.m. and Mattis at 8 p.m. A hearing to review the recall petition filed against Commissioner Robert McLachlan is scheduled for Thursday, March 24 at 7 p.m.

County Clerk Beth Wieland, who is also a member of the Clarity Board, said the hearings are to determine if a person signing the petition can understand the language stating the reason for the recall. The hearings are designed to give both the sponsor of the petition and the person who it is filed against a chance to voice their opinion as to the clarity of the language.

All three of the petitions state the reason for the recall being related to sale of the Crawford-Otsego Landfill in 1991 to City Environmental Services of Waters (CESW), and the lack or disregard of public input into the decision of amending the county solid waste management plan.

County commissioners unanimously approved an amendment on Feb. 28 that would allow a total of 26 counties to dispose of household refuse at the landfill located in Maple Forest Township. CESW had previously stated it would file a lawsuit to rescind the sale of the landfill if such an amendment was not passed. If successful, the lawsuit could have cost the county almost $8 million.

The recall efforts against Mattis and Goodale are being sponsored by former Commissioner Joseph Callewaert and Richard W. Johnson, respectively. The petition challenging McLachlan was filed by Garland "Bud" Joyce.

Mattis said he will not attend the Clarity Board hearing.

"I really don't see why I should go," he said. "It's not going to change anything.

"Personally, I think the recall is a waste of people's money, because of the primary elections in August and the general election in November," Mattis added. "I don't know what's to be gained by this now."

Election officials have stated it is doubtful a recall election could be scheduled before July. Cost estimates for each of the recall elections is more than $1,000.

Callewaert, who is sponsoring the recall effort against Mattis, was vice chair of the county board during the sale of the landfill and voted to approve the letter of intent to sell the site to CESW in 1991.

Callewaert would not comment why he sponsored the recall petition during a phone interview on Monday, March 21. He said that he had "not been authorized to make any public comment" about the recall efforts by the Recall Committee of Crawford County or its membership.

"Usually, if a person or group is opposed or supports something on the ballot, they file under campaign finance," Wieland added.

According to Wieland, invalid recall petitions first filed against commissioners Dennis Long, Mattis, McLachlan and Goodale were addressed as being from a "Recall Committee." She said these were mailed back to the sender.

"According to the tax rolls, it was (Callewaert's) address," Wieland said.

Wieland said there is no organization currently filed locally to do business as the "Recall Committee."

"No one filed as doing business under that name," she said. "And no one has filed for campaign finance as that.

Construction at M-72 West Bridge still on schedule

By Dennis Mansfield
Managing Editor

Despite one of the coldest winters in state history, progress on the M-72 West Bridge over the Main Stream of the AuSable River remains on schedule, according to the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT).

The bridge is undergoing a more than $850,000 expansion from two to four lanes, which also includes an eight-foot wide path on the south side of the structure. MDOT officials estimate more than 16,000 vehicles cross the bridge per day.

Ray Roberts, resident engineer at the MDOT office in West Branch, said the contractor for the project, Millbocker and Sons Inc. of Allegan, are still on schedule to open two-lane traffic over the bridge by the May 15th deadline.

Contractors are scheduled to resume work on the concrete beams this week. Workers from Premark-GRI of Grand Rapids, which fabricated the 11-ton beams, were at the construction site on Thursday, March 17, preparing the pavement seat on the beams for further work.

Once work on the beams is completed, concrete will be poured over the beams to form the two south bound lanes of the bridge.

"We're still on schedule," Roberts said. "The type of work we're on now requires temperatures 40 degrees and rising so the concrete won't freeze at night.

"It's totally dependant on the weather now," he added.

Roberts said recent cold spells are not a concern, since contractors do not need a prolonged period to pour the concrete. If Mother Nature cooperates and work on the bridge and approach can begin by April 1, the expansion project should remain on schedule.

"It doesn't take long to finish the concrete pours," he said. "What takes longer is the approach work to the bridge."

The new four-lane bridge is expected to be complete in August.

State apellate court rules with local decision against AuSable-Manistee Action Council

By Terry Wright
Staff Writer

The Michigan Court of Appeals recently affirmed the May 1992 Circuit Court decision of Judge Alton Davis in allowing military units from outside states the unrestricted use of training areas within the Michigan National Guard training encampment at Camp Grayling.

The ruling denies a lawsuit by the AuSable Manistee Action Council (AMAC), which argued the original 14,000 acre landgrant, from Rasmus and Margrethe Hanson to the State of Michigan, specified that only Michigan military personnel could train there.

In making its March 11 decision, the State of Michigan Court of Appeals stated, "We affirm."

Any further action on the case is now in the hands of AMAC. According to Dan Alstott, president of AMAC, "We're not done with it yet. We're going to attempt to get the Michigan Supreme Court to look at it."

The 14,000 acre tract deeded to the state on May 20, 1913, contains the cantonment area of the now 146,000 acre Camp Grayling military reservation. In anticipation of the deed, the state accepted the land on May 2, 1913, by public act number 172.

Section three of that act states: "The said tract of land shall be used for the following purposes: First, as a permanent encampment and maneuvering ground for the militia of this state; second, as a game preserve for the breeding and protection of game; third, as a forest reserve; fourth, for the establishment of fresh air camps, or for other recreational or health giving purposes by any state institution, county, city, village or township."

The deed goes on to state the property is to be used for the purposes set forth in the act, "...and on no other conditions and for no other purposes whatsoever except as therein provided."

In making his decision, Davis wrote, "The court finds nothing in 1913 Public Act 172, the deed, or the

County voters approve Proposal 'A' by 4-to-1 margin

CASD superintendent now says it's a question of state lawmakers staying committed to plan

By Terry Wright
Staff Writer

Michigan voters overwhelmingly approved a tax and education finance overhaul on Tuesday, March 15. Statewide, Proposal A received 70 percent favorable votes, despite a barrage of special interest television commercials urging residents to vote the proposal down.

Proposal A received a favorable majority in every county in the state. The City of Detroit was the only major population area to reject the proposal in favor of the statutory plan. Detroiters voted Proposal A down by a 63-37 percentage margin.

Voters in Crawford County passed the proposal by almost a 4-to-1 majority. Of the 3,582 ballots that were cast in Crawford County, 2,811 were in favor of Proposal A, while 771 were against it.

"The passing of Proposal A gives us a stable, dedicated tax base," Kent Reynolds, superintendent of the Crawford-AuSable School District (CASD) said, "but the actions of the legislature from this point forward may be more important than what happened on Tuesday."

Reynolds explained that, because of an error in calculations, Proposal A tax changes will actually come up $400 million short of the $10 billion state officials promised as a guaranteed base for public schools.

Proposal A will increase the state sales tax from 4 percent to 6 percent effective May 1. The increase will raise the sales tax $2 for every $100 spent. On the price of a $15,000 car, the increase will mean an extra $300.

Other major changes brought about by Proposal A include a decrease in state income tax from the present rate of 4.6 percent to a new rate of 4.4 percent. Homestead property taxes will be cut to six mills, with a cap on assessment increases of no more than five percent annually, or the rate of inflation, whichever is less.

The reason for restructuring the Michigan tax system, in conjunction with other legislative measures that will raise additional money, is to provide a more balanced means of financing the states public school system, according to state officials.

Whereas the current means of state school grants provides unequal amounts of dollars to different school districts, the new system has a guaranteed amount of $5,000 for each student in the state. For many school districts, such as Crawford-AuSable, that means a substantial increase in per-student funding.

"The question now becomes, are they going to replace that shortfall of $400 million in committed revenues with new dedicated revenues," Reynolds said. "For now, we're back in competition with other agencies for state money. Are they going to be gutsy enough to live up to their Dec. 24 committment?"

A complete breakdown of how residents of Crawford County voted is as follows:

Unsolved mystery leaves family and friends confused and frustrated

By Terry Wright
Staff Writer

This is the third and final article in a series on the disappearance of Grayling teen Perry. O. Corlew on the night of Friday, March 15, 1974.

"Perry was no different than any other teenaged kid," said JoAnn Morrison-Michal, Perry's friend at the time of his disappearance. "The difference was that he was the kind of kid who always got caught. He was always a happy-go-lucky person on the outside, but inside he thought he was a rebel."

When Perry Corlew disappeared on the night of March 15, 1974, Morrison-Michal was one of his best friends. Perry even considered her his girlfriend, though she said they had not actually dated as boyfriend/girlfriend in more than a year.

JoAnn was, apparently, Perry's confidant, and today she gives a different perspective as to what Perry may have been thinking when he abandoned his car in the middle of the expressway and fled into the night.

She said Corlew had enough points on his driver's license from previous accidents and tickets to cause it to be taken away if he had been caught drinking and driving that night. Had that happened, the car he was in the process of purchasing could have been in jeopardy.

"His cars were very important to him," Morrison-Michal said. "He wouldn't have been able to handle not having a car."

She said Perry had also been distrubed because he didn't know if he was going to be able to graduate with his class the following June, and he was ashamed that he had caused his parents so much trouble.

She remembered a night when a police officer had come to the Corlew house to question Perry in front of his parents about a crime. "He said he'd get Perry if it was the last thing he did, but when he found out later Perry was not involved, he never came back to apologize."

In her statement to police after Perry's disappearance, Morrison-Michal stated that Perry had talked of going to Florida with one of his other friends, but at that time his friend, Tim Calkins, was still in Grayling.

In his statement at the time, Calkins said Perry loved his family more than he was given credit for, but he wanted to leave the area. He said Perry talked of going to California because he was not happy with his relationship with JoAnn, and because he was not happy with the local police, whom he thought were harassing him. He said Perry was trying to stay out of trouble.

PERRY CORLEW--disappeared on the night of Friday, March 15, 1974 and has not been seen or heard from since.

Morrison-Michal says she has no idea what happened to Perry nor where he might be, but said, "If he's alive, and I think he is, it's a dirty rotten shame what he's doing to his parents. Sure, some of us hurt him, but it was part of growing up. I couldn't do any different today.

"All of us want him to know that we really love and care for him. I hope his story gets national attention. Above and beyond all else, I would like Mr. and Mrs. Corlew to have an answer. They are great and wonderful people. It seems like a lifetime ago," she added. "I'm so sorry."

Morrison-Michal said she would like to see the Corlew's go to a psychic to see if one could lend any detail to the mystery.

The Corlew's have strong Baptist beliefs, and don't give much credence to those who profess extra-sensory abilities, but strangely, on two different occasions family members came in contact with people claiming psychic abilities. Both times the stories they told were far from any known evidence, and were disregarded as positive leads.

The facts in the Perry Corlew disappearance may never be known, but what is known is that an incredible amount of coincidence has occurred that adds to the mystery, and to the family's frustration in trying to find it's son.

1) Why wasn't a Roscommon village policeman allowed by the Roscommon Sheriff to stop a car when he saw a man get in it, near the scene of Perry's disappearance and minutes after Perry's abandoned vehicle was discovered.

Reliable sources say it was probably because of a territorial dispute between the Roscommon sheriff and the Roscommon Village Police chief.

2) Were Perry Corlew's fingerprints taken when he spent two days and one night in jail one and a-half years earlier for the felony crime of breaking and entering? The family says yes, but there were apparently no set procedures for handling juveniles at that time. If there were prints taken, where are they today? Perry Corlew's jail inmate record from that incarceration has neither "yes" nor "no" checked in the finger print section.

3) What became of Perry Corlew's dental records after they were sent to the Plaquemines Parish Sheriff in Belle Chasse, Louisiana? Grayling City Police have evidence they were sent, but Louisiana officials have told the Corlew family dental records were never received.

4) The sudden disappearance of a troublesome teenaged boy was treated as a runaway situation by both local officials and family. Neither could know Perry would not return. But, because of that, no immediate large-scale ground search of the area was done, nor were finger prints taken from the abandoned vehicle.

5) Was it really their son that Bud and Roberta Corlew saw in a 1978 news film? Seven different family members said it was Perry, but they were unable to find any useful information from the film that could have led them to their son.

6) Why did the NBC-TV program "Unsolved Mysteries" first accept the Perry Corlew story, then suddenly declare it would "absolutely not be seen?" The rejection by Unsolved Mysteries came close to ending any hope Bud and Roberta Corlew held of ever seeing their son again.

7) Most mysterious of all, was it Perry Corlew that phoned his brother Michael in 1992? If so, why has he refused to make his whereabouts known to his family?

After last week's second article on Perry's disappearance, Crawford County Sheriff David Lovely asked his staff to compile the facts of the case to see if anything new can be discovered.

"We're not really reopening the case," Lovely said. "We'll just see if we can come up with something new."

Possiblilities that Lovely discussed included a genetic map of Perry from blood samples taken from his parents, and the computer enhanced aging of a 20-year-old picture of Perry.

"We're not sure what can be done yet," Lovely added, "but we'll talk to everyone again and see what the family wants to do."

"I'd like to see the Sheriff help us get Perry's picture on national televison," Roberta Corlew said.

The Corlew family is asking persons with any knowledge of what transpired on Friday, March 15, 1974, to come forward. They are offering a $1,000 reward for information leading to the proven whereabouts of their son.

With today's advances in procedures and investigation, and the wonders of modern forensic science, it may be possible to recreate evidence, even 20-year-old finger prints that could possibly bring the whereabouts Perry Corlew to light.

With the new nationwide computer finger print identification system in place, it is possible finger prints taken from something Perry handled 20-years-ago could hit a match on finger prints that he might have had taken, for any reason, more recently. If Perry Corlew is in hiding under an assumed identity, he may be able to be found.

Bud and Roberta Corlew, and their other children Michael, Mickey and Jim, and their families, would like to end their 20-year vigil. They are insistent that they blame no one involved in any aspect of the investigation. They say they just want Perry back.

"We just want him to know we love him," the family echoed together. "We want him to know it's OK. He can come home now."

Weyerhaeuser Foundation donates $15,000 to Michigan Forest Visitor's Center at Hartwick Pines

The Weyerhaeuser Co. of Grayling, through the Weyerhaeuser Co. Foundation, has announced a grant in the amount of $15,000 has been awarded to the Friends of the Hartwick Pines State Park.

The purpose of the grant is to provide additional funding for the new Michigan Forest Visitor's Center at the Hartwick Pines.

"The Michigan Forest Visitor's Center is scheduled to open to the public in May and will be the state's keystone in the education and interpretation of the forest products industry and the history of logging," according to Terri Gibbons, president of the Friends of the Hartwick Pines.

The local group has been involved in an ongoing fund raising project with the Michgan Department of Natural Resources, Department of Parks and Recreation, to make the Visitor's Center a reality.

The Weyerhaeuser Co. Foundation was established in 1948 as the principle means of philanthropy for Weyerhaeuser Company. The Foundation's two-fold mission is to improve the quality of life in communities where Weyerhaeuser has major presence and to provide leadership that increases public understanding of issues where society's needs intersect with the interests of the forest products industry.

The Weyerhaeuser Grayling facility is celebrating its 12th year of operation here and during that time grants totaling nearly $600,000 have been awarded by the Weyerhaeuser Foundation to local and area non-profit organizations.

"This foundation grant recognizes our continuing support of and committment to sound forest management practices and effective utilization of Michigan forests," said Rodger Anger, General Manager of the Grayling Structurwood mill. "This project will provide the opportunity for over 250,000 people each year to learn more about the timber industry and the significant efforts being made to use our natural resources wisely.

"This gift will enable us to begin construction on the remaining furnishings and exhibits for phase-two of the new Michigan Forest Visitor's Center, located in the Hartwick Pines State Park," park manager Robert Bacon said.

Lovells looks for help in Township road repair

By Terry Wright
Staff Writer

Lovells Township Supervisor Fred Schaibly is looking for help in improving the conditions of some of his township's roads.

"Lovells Road hasn't been paved in 25-years," Schaibly said. "And there's a bump just west of Kellogg's Bridge on the North Down River Road that is dangerous. The oil and gas trucks and the pulp trucks are busting up our roads and bridges."

Schaibly said he is working closely with Crawford County Road Commissioner Robert Nelson and State Representative Allen Lowe to find funding for road repairs. He also has been in contact with other politicians.

In a letter to Governor Engler and U.S. Senators Carl Levin and Donald Riegle, U.S. Representatives Bart Stupak and Dave Camp, State Senators John Pridnia and George McManus and State Representatives Tom Alley and Lowe, Schaibly wrote:

"Our gravel and black top roads up here in northern Michigan take a real beating from these large trucks in their overuse. They should be held responsible to leave these roads in the same condition they were in when they started using them."

Schaibly continued to say that the Michigan Natural Resources Trust Fund, a special fund coming from oil and gas royalties and permits used by the state to purchase available properties for inclusion in the public domain, should be amended to help townships and counties with road repair and maintenance.

"That fund is already being used for other projects that have nothing to do with purchasing land," Shaibly said. "Why can't some of it be used for roads."

Schaibly pointed out a Detroit Free Press editorial from Feb. 20, that said one-quarter of the trust funds annual revenue is being used to finance projects such as boat ramps, park benches, baseball diamonds and other recreational facilities.

That article says almost two-thirds of the annual oil and gas revenues that are supposed to go to the trust fund have been siphoned off and gone into the Michigan Strategic Fund. Another third is being used for the immediate purchase of land.

Schaibly wants some of that money. "We don't want any of our gravel roads paved," he said. "We just want our primary roads maintained."

Responding to Schaibly's letter, U.S. Representatives Stupak and Camp referred him back to state and local agencies.

Stupak wrote of the possibility of a 2 percent increase in the federal transportation buget that might be disbursed by each state, but "...because the roads in question are under the jurisdiction of the County Road Commission, it is important that the county stay in close touch with the Michigan Department of Transportation..."

Camp said Schaibly's suggestions about oil and gas industry permit fees going to improve roads had merit, but "Since this is an issue that would be handled at the state level, I am pleased to see that you have already contacted the appropriate state officials."

Schaibly said the two worst roads in Lovells Township are the North Down River Road from McMaster's Bridge Road to the Oscoda County line, and Lovells Road from North Down River Road to the Village of Lovells.

historical data submitted by the state to support plaintiff's theory in letter or in spirit."

Davis based his decision, in part, on the fact that the deed contained no specific reverter clause specifiying what conditions were to occurr if the land was not used in the manner prescribed in the deed.

Another major consideration in the judgement was the historical data on the use of the camp, supplied by the state and admitted into evidence by the plaintiff.

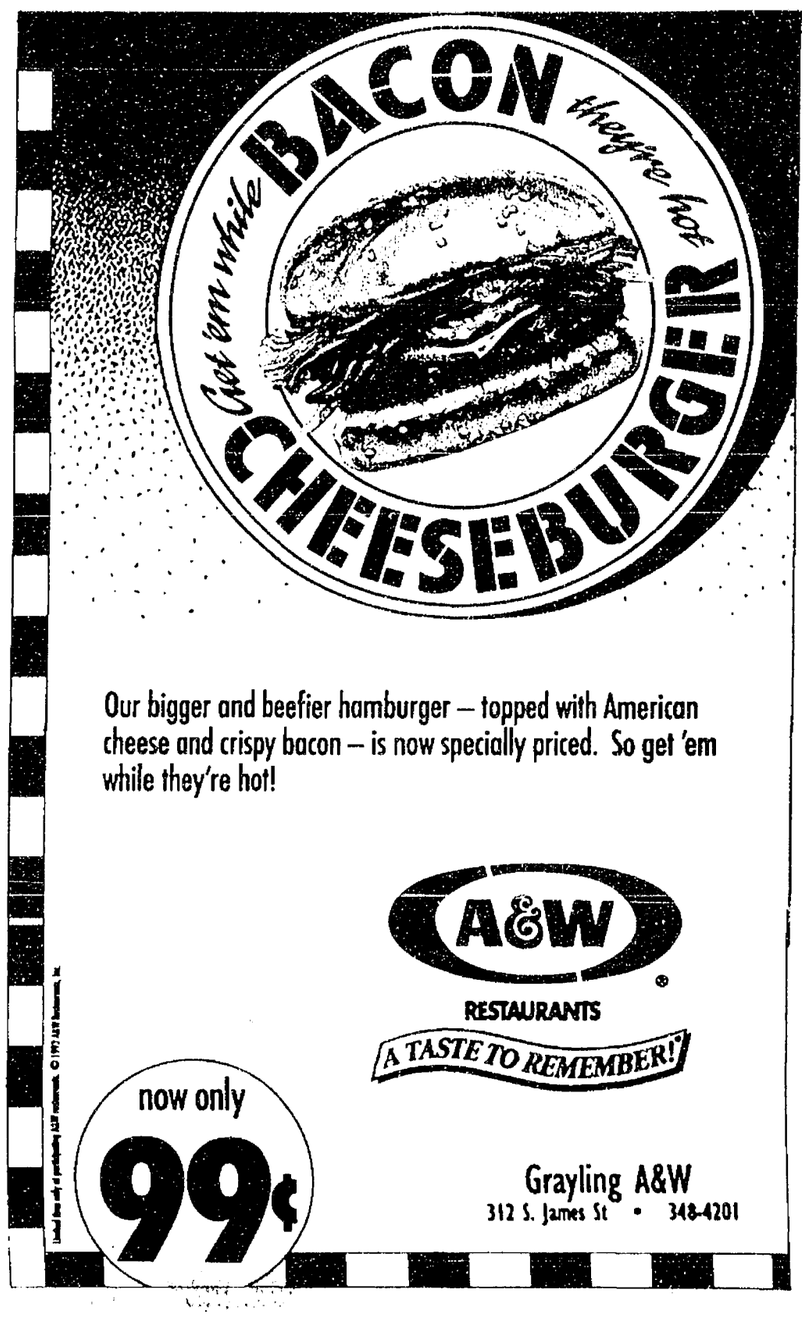

Davis wrote: "...prior to acquisition of this site, the Michigan National Guard conducted its training exercise in various locations and with units of the regular army. Almost immediately following the donation and acceptance of the Hanson tract, the Michigan Guard, units from other states, and the regular army began to make use of the site. (Crawford County Avalanche, Jan. 22, 1914; May 5, 1927; July 7, 1927) That use by foreign units commenced during the donors' lifetimes and has continued on a greater or lesser scale as circumstances warranted. Federal funds have been used to develop the site from its inception in 1913. In 1917, Mr. Hanson built and donated the present Officer's Club, presumably as a gesture of his ongoing support of developments at the Camp.

"It is clear to the court that the intention of the donors, the legislature of 1913, and the language of the deed and public act at issue was simply to create a permanent site for the Michigan Guard to use as a training site vesting in the appropriate state military authorities the discretion as to how and by whom it would be used and developed for military purposes. The only restriction on that discretion is the reverter clause if the property were not used for five continuous years by the Michigan Guard."

Alstott said AMAC lawyers intend to petition the highest court in the state within the 21-day legal time limit.

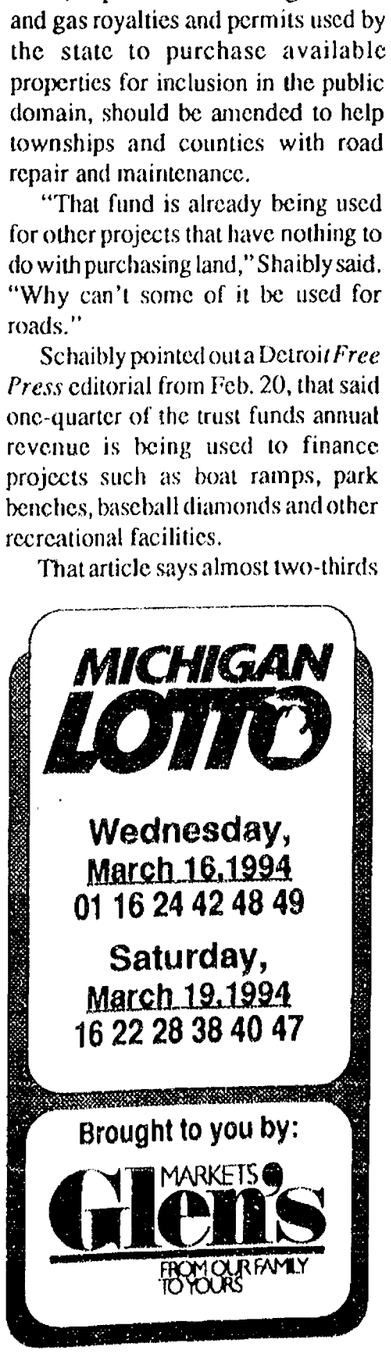

"It will be a matter of months (before the Supreme Court will act on the case)," Alstott said. "We started this in November 1987, and we've been at it every since."

AMAC consists of nearly 1,000 contributing members, and has stated its purpose as being: "To initiate and manage appropriate action required to protect the enviornment, natural resources and quality of life in the upper AuSable and Manistee River basins of Michigan."

She said Corlew had enough points on his driver's license from previous accidents and tickets to cause it to be taken away if he had been caught drinking and driving that night. Had that happened, the car he was in the process of purchasing could have been in jeopardy.

"His cars were very important to him," Morrison-Michal said. "He wouldn't have been able to handle not having a car."

She said Perry had also been distrubed because he didn't know if he was going to be able to graduate with his class the following June, and he was ashamed that he had caused his parents so much trouble.

She remembered a night when a police officer had come to the Corlew house to question Perry in front of his parents about a crime. "He said he'd get Perry if it was the last thing he did, but when he found out later Perry was not involved, he never came back to apologize."

In her statement to police after Perry's disappearance, Morrison-Michal stated that Perry had talked of going to Florida with one of his other friends, but at that time his friend, Tim Calkins, was still in Grayling.

In his statement at the time, Calkins said Perry loved his family more than he was given credit for, but he wanted to leave the area. He said Perry talked of going to California because he was not happy with his relationship with JoAnn, and because he was not happy with the local police, whom he thought were harassing him. He said Perry was trying to stay out of trouble.

PERRY CORLEW--disappeared on the night of Friday, March 15, 1974 and has not been seen or heard from since.

Morrison-Michal says she has no idea what happened to Perry nor where he might be, but said, "If he's alive, and I think he is, it's a dirty rotten shame what he's doing to his parents. Sure, some of us hurt him, but it was part of growing up. I couldn't do any different today.

"All of us want him to know that we really love and care for him. I hope his story gets national attention. Above and beyond all else, I would like Mr. and Mrs. Corlew to have an answer. They are great and wonderful people. It seems like a lifetime ago," she added. "I'm so sorry."

Morrison-Michal said she would like to see the Corlew's go to a psychic to see if one could lend any detail to the mystery.

The Corlew's have strong Baptist beliefs, and don't give much credence to those who profess extra-sensory abilities, but strangely, on two different occasions family members came in contact with people claiming psychic abilities. Both times the stories they told were far from any known evidence, and were disregarded as positive leads.

The facts in the Perry Corlew disappearance may never be known, but what is known is that an incredible amount of coincidence has occurred that adds to the mystery, and to the family's frustration in trying to find it's son.

1) Why wasn't a Roscommon village policeman allowed by the Roscommon Sheriff to stop a car when he saw a man get in it, near the scene of Perry's disappearance and minutes after Perry's abandoned vehicle was discovered.

Reliable sources say it was probably because of a territorial dispute between the Roscommon sheriff and the Roscommon Village Police chief.

2) Were Perry Corlew's fingerprints taken when he spent two days and one night in jail one and a-half years earlier for the felony crime of breaking and entering? The family says yes, but there were apparently no set procedures for handling juveniles at that time. If there were prints taken, where are they today? Perry Corlew's jail inmate record from that incarceration has neither "yes" nor "no" checked in the finger print section.

3) What became of Perry Corlew's dental records after they were sent to the Plaquemines Parish Sheriff in Belle Chasse, Louisiana? Grayling City Police have evidence they were sent, but Louisiana officials have told the Corlew family dental records were never received.

4) The sudden disappearance of a troublesome teenaged boy was treated as a runaway situation by both local officials and family. Neither could know Perry would not return. But, because of that, no immediate large-scale ground search of the area was done, nor were finger prints taken from the abandoned vehicle.

5) Was it really their son that Bud and Roberta Corlew saw in a 1978 news film? Seven different family members said it was Perry, but they were unable to find any useful information from the film that could have led them to their son.

6) Why did the NBC-TV program "Unsolved Mysteries" first accept the Perry Corlew story, then suddenly declare it would "absolutely not be seen?" The rejection by Unsolved Mysteries came close to ending any hope Bud and Roberta Corlew held of ever seeing their son again.

7) Most mysterious of all, was it Perry Corlew that phoned his brother Michael in 1992? If so, why has he refused to make his whereabouts known to his family?

After last week's second article on Perry's disappearance, Crawford County Sheriff David Lovely asked his staff to compile the facts of the case to see if anything new can be discovered.

"We're not really reopening the case," Lovely said. "We'll just see if we can come up with something new."

Possiblilities that Lovely discussed included a genetic map of Perry from blood samples taken from his parents, and the computer enhanced aging of a 20-year-old picture of Perry.

"We're not sure what can be done yet," Lovely added, "but we'll talk to everyone again and see what the family wants to do."

"I'd like to see the Sheriff help us get Perry's picture on national televison," Roberta Corlew said.

The Corlew family is asking persons with any knowledge of what transpired on Friday, March 15, 1974, to come forward. They are offering a $1,000 reward for information leading to the proven whereabouts of their son.

With today's advances in procedures and investigation, and the wonders of modern forensic science, it may be possible to recreate evidence, even 20-year-old finger prints that could possibly bring the whereabouts Perry Corlew to light.

With the new nationwide computer finger print identification system in place, it is possible finger prints taken from something Perry handled 20-years-ago could hit a match on finger prints that he might have had taken, for any reason, more recently. If Perry Corlew is in hiding under an assumed identity, he may be able to be found.

Bud and Roberta Corlew, and their other children Michael, Mickey and Jim, and their families, would like to end their 20-year vigil. They are insistent that they blame no one involved in any aspect of the investigation. They say they just want Perry back.

"We just want him to know we love him," the family echoed together. "We want him to know it's OK. He can come home now."

The Weyerhaeuser Co. of Grayling, through the Weyerhaeuser Co. Foundation, has announced a grant in the amount of $15,000 has been awarded to the Friends of the Hartwick Pines State Park.

The purpose of the grant is to provide additional funding for the new Michigan Forest Visitor's Center at the Hartwick Pines.

"The Michigan Forest Visitor's Center is scheduled to open to the public in May and will be the state's keystone in the education and interpretation of the forest products industry and the history of logging," according to Terri Gibbons, president of the Friends of the Hartwick Pines.

The local group has been involved in an ongoing fund raising project with the Michgan Department of Natural Resources, Department of Parks and Recreation, to make the Visitor's Center a reality.

The Weyerhaeuser Co. Foundation was established in 1948 as the principle means of philanthropy for Weyerhaeuser Company. The Foundation's two-fold mission is to improve the quality of life in communities where Weyerhaeuser has major presence and to provide leadership that increases public understanding of issues where society's needs intersect with the interests of the forest products industry.

The Weyerhaeuser Grayling facility is celebrating its 12th year of operation here and during that time grants totaling nearly $600,000 have been awarded by the Weyerhaeuser Foundation to local and area non-profit organizations.

"This foundation grant recognizes our continuing support of and committment to sound forest management practices and effective utilization of Michigan forests," said Rodger Anger, General Manager of the Grayling Structurwood mill. "This project will provide the opportunity for over 250,000 people each year to learn more about the timber industry and the significant efforts being made to use our natural resources wisely.

"This gift will enable us to begin construction on the remaining furnishings and exhibits for phase-two of the new Michigan Forest Visitor's Center, located in the Hartwick Pines State Park," park manager Robert Bacon said.

Lovells looks for help in Township road repair

By Terry Wright
Staff Writer

Lovells Township Supervisor Fred Schaibly is looking for help in improving the conditions of some of his township's roads.

"Lovells Road hasn't been paved in 25-years," Schaibly said. "And there's a bump just west of Kellogg's Bridge on the North Down River Road that is dangerous. The oil and gas trucks and the pulp trucks are busting up our roads and bridges."

Schaibly said he is working closely with Crawford County Road Commissioner Robert Nelson and State Representative Allen Lowe to find funding for road repairs. He also has been in contact with other politicians.

In a letter to Governor Engler and U.S. Senators Carl Levin and Donald Riegle, U.S. Representatives Bart Stupak and Dave Camp, State Senators John Pridnia and George McManus and State Representatives Tom Alley and Lowe, Schaibly wrote:

"Our gravel and black top roads up here in northern Michigan take a real beating from these large trucks in their overuse. They should be held responsible to leave these roads in the same condition they were in when they started using them."

Schaibly continued to say that the Michigan Natural Resources Trust Fund, a special fund coming from oil and gas royalties and permits used by the state to purchase available properties for inclusion in the public domain, should be amended to help townships and counties with road repair and maintenance.

"That fund is already being used for other projects that have nothing to do with purchasing land," Shaibly said. "Why can't some of it be used for roads."

Schaibly pointed out a Detroit Free Press editorial from Feb. 20, that said one-quarter of the trust funds annual revenue is being used to finance projects such as boat ramps, park benches, baseball diamonds and other recreational facilities.

That article says almost two-thirds of the annual oil and gas revenues that are supposed to go to the trust fund have been siphoned off and gone into the Michigan Strategic Fund. Another third is being used for the immediate purchase of land.

Schaibly wants some of that money. "We don't want any of our gravel roads paved," he said. "We just want our primary roads maintained."

Responding to Schaibly's letter, U.S. Representatives Stupak and Camp referred him back to state and local agencies.

Stupak wrote of the possibility of a 2 percent increase in the federal transportation buget that might be disbursed by each state, but "...because the roads in question are under the jurisdiction of the County Road Commission, it is important that the county stay in close touch with the Michigan Department of Transportation..."

Camp said Schaibly's suggestions about oil and gas industry permit fees going to improve roads had merit, but "Since this is an issue that would be handled at the state level, I am pleased to see that you have already contacted the appropriate state officials."

Schaibly said the two worst roads in Lovells Township are the North Down River Road from McMaster's Bridge Road to the Oscoda County line, and Lovells Road from North Down River Road to the Village of Lovells.

historical data submitted by the state to support plaintiff's theory in letter or in spirit."

Davis based his decision, in part, on the fact that the deed contained no specific reverter clause specifiying what conditions were to occurr if the land was not used in the manner prescribed in the deed.

Another major consideration in the judgement was the historical data on the use of the camp, supplied by the state and admitted into evidence by the plaintiff.

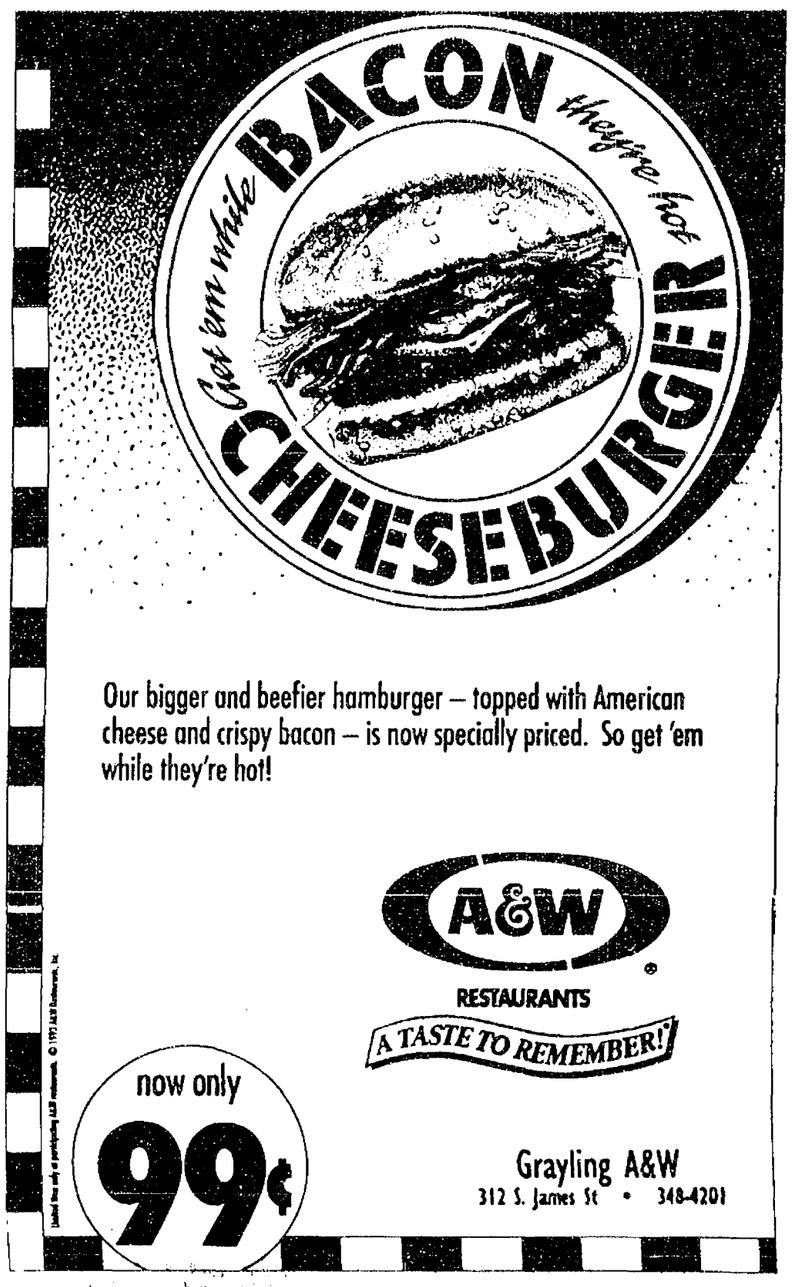

Davis wrote: "...prior to acquisition of this site, the Michigan National Guard conducted its training exercise in various locations and with units of the regular army. Almost immediately following the donation and acceptance of the Hanson tract, the Michigan Guard, units from other states, and the regular army began to make use of the site. (Crawford County Avalanche, Jan. 22, 1914; May 5, 1927; July 7, 1927) That use by foreign units commenced during the donors' lifetimes and has continued on a greater or lesser scale as circumstances warranted. Federal funds have been used to develop the site from its inception in 1913. In 1917, Mr. Hanson built and donated the present Officer's Club, presumably as a gesture of his ongoing support of developments at the Camp.

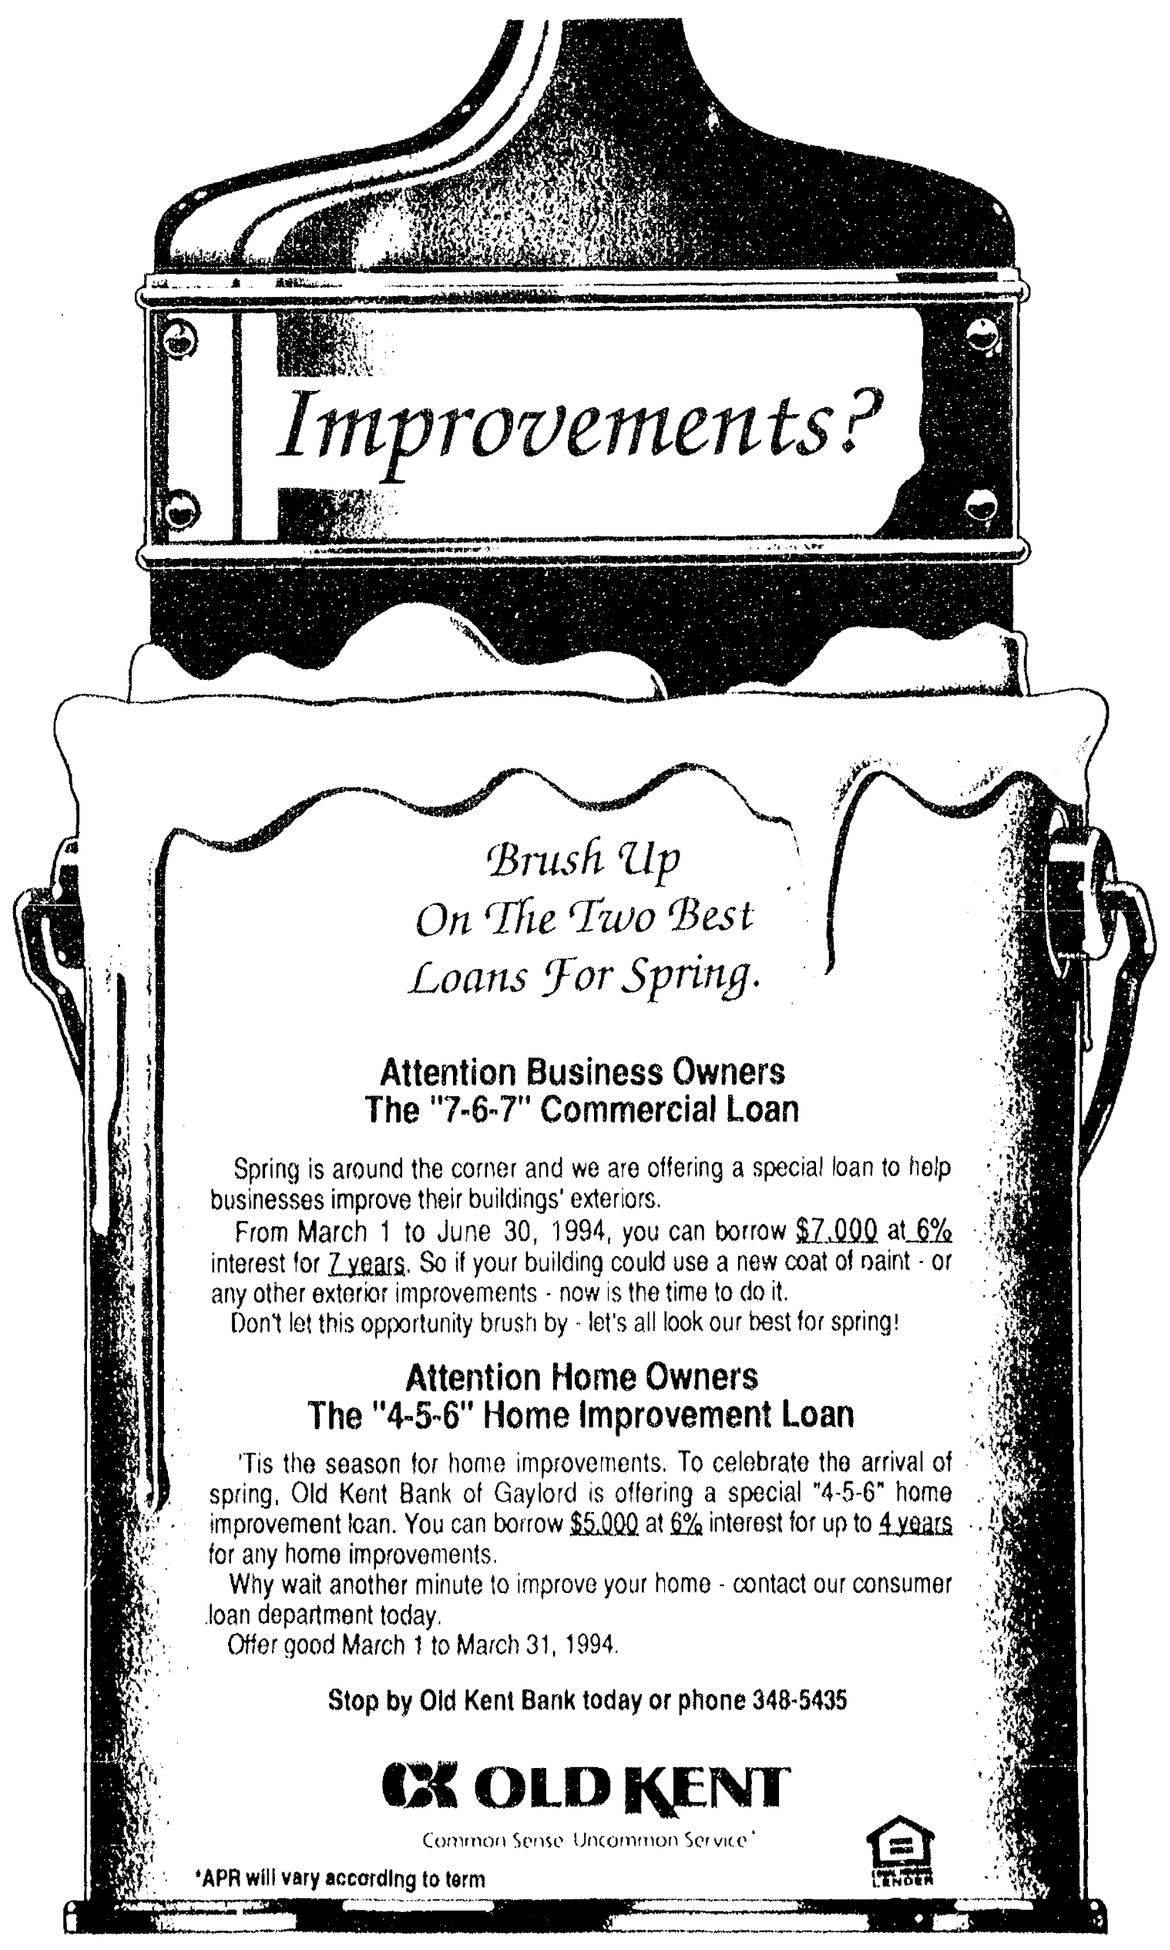

"It is clear to the court that the intention of the donors, the legislature of 1913, and the language of the deed and public act at issue was simply to create a permanent site for the Michigan Guard to use as a training site vesting in the appropriate state military authorities the discretion as to how and by whom it would be used and developed for military purposes. The only restriction on that discretion is the reverter clause if the property were not used for five continuous years by the Michigan Guard."

Alstott said AMAC lawyers intend to petition the highest court in the state within the 21-day legal time limit.

"It will be a matter of months (before the Supreme Court will act on the case)," Alstott said. "We started this in November 1987, and we've been at it every since."

AMAC consists of nearly 1,000 contributing members, and has stated its purpose as being: "To initiate and manage appropriate action required to protect the enviornment, natural resources and quality of life in the upper AuSable and Manistee River basins of Michigan."

'Recall' is part of our rights

In answer to Mr. Art Thayer, I would like to say that the right of the "initiative" and "recall" goes back to the Bill of Rights and the Constitution. It has been enacted into law in every state in the Union.

The recall petition solves many, many problems such as non-feasance, misfeasance, and malfeasance of office holders. Otherwise an open invitation would exist to any and all corrupt persons who could violate rules, regulations, statutes and laws without regard to punishment from the electors.

As a die-hard Republican, I'm sure you probably also believe that "tricky Dick" should still be president and the Congress should not have forced his resignation. Wrong. Or that there is no sense prosecuting the criminal as it's too expensive as the system will just let him back out on the street in a few months anyway.

Mr. Thayer, you should also know that the former commissioners that you wrongly accused had nothing to do with the operation of the landfill. They had no voice or jurisdiction in the landfill. It was operated entirely by the Crawford-Otsego Landfill Authority, not the counties.

Future generations will have to live, cope with recent mistakes

To the editor:

As a concerned citizen I feel that our commissioners have let our children down. My heart bleeds for future generations who will have to live on this, our planet earth, and pay the price for our errors. I really believe our commissioners made a mistake in the contract for the landfill. If they did not understand the fine print and the obligations it contained they should have had it explained to them. If one third of the counties in the State of Michigan use Crawford `County as their dumping grounds, what effect will it have on life for future generations?

I feel it is way out of line with what could be considered preserving and protecting the environment. I sure hope in the days ahead we won't have to ship our garbage out. It would be nice if we could go back to the days when Crawford County operated alone with the technology of today. But that is impossible and we will have to live and cope with the mistakes that were made.

Yours truly, a concerned citizen,
Charles Dixon

Residents want input, not excuses

As the wife of the former county commissioner Don Welser, I wish to take exception to the insinuation that Don is only interested in the landfill issue because he wants to get back into politics or run again for some office. Nothing could be further from the truth, except possibly some of the other mis-truths the promoters of the landfill are spewing.

My husband has serious heart and health problems and could not possibly hold an office even if he wanted to. The commissioner's district he would have to run for is currently filled by Robert Smock Jr., who also opposes more counties being added to the contract which would probably add to the pollution already there.

Using Don, Joe Callewaert, Bud Joyce and others as scapegoats is typical and predictable. Politicians continually try to manipulate the minds of the public off from the main subject. Hopefully the people realize that the subject and the problem is the LANDFILL, plus the increase in contamination with the amendment to add more counties to the existing problem.

We all want a place to get rid of our trash and refuse, but what most are worried about is future cost, etc. If your landfill gets full or shuts down, what then? Which one of the commissioners and/or other promoters of the amendment is going to sign his name to back up all the promises and statements they are making?

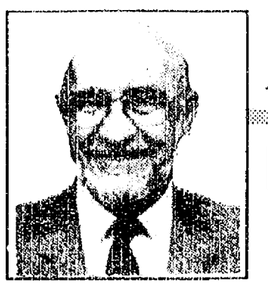

All that Don and the hundreds of other citizens want is input from the people to be heard by the officials before voting on the issue. It seems that every area resident has legitimate concerns and questions and many want an environmental impact study done now -- before it's too late. Can't the officials see the possible ramifications, and why are they promoting and intimidating so vehemently if we have already met our obligations to C.E.S.W. under the contract?

According to the commissioners, when they approved the contract they fulfilled their obligation. The townships are not under contract with C.E.S.W. so they should vote according to their citizens' interest, not C.E.S.W.

In addition, C.E.S.W.'s threat of a lawsuit is just that — a threat. No lawsuit has been filed and so what if it has. A four or eight million dollar lawsuit will look awfully cheap 10 years down the road if we have to haul our garbage to some far-off, high-priced landfill because ours is closed by the DNR or filled from 25 other counties, plus other states and countries that also can now haul there if they wish.

Thank you for letting me exercise my first amendment right (Freedom of Speech). I'm afraid somewhere down the line the politicians are going to try and take that freedom away from us too. They will probably make a motion, form a committee to study it and then decide that only government officials have the right to "Freedom of Speech" because their constituents aren't intelligent enough to deserve that right. Let's hope that never happens

ALMANACK By Richard Milliman

Hail to the King of Pork

AN ORGANIZATION CALLED Citizens Against Government Waste made a big deal in Washington a few weeks ago by attacking pork barrel spending in Congress.

The group unveiled its "1994 Congressional Pig Book Summary," listing what it felt were the 97 "most egregious" pork barrel projects of the year.

There were some doozies, of course — like spending $11.5 million to modernize the power plant at the Philadelphia Naval Shipyard, which is scheduled to be closed soon... and like $2 million earmarked in the Department of Defense budget for the 1996 Summer Olympics in Atlanta.

Why defense spending for the Olympics, the anti-waste group wanted to know. Why indeed?

NOT SURPRISINGLY, one of the individual pork experts cited was Sen. Robert Byrd of West Virginia, who makes no bones that his primary purpose in the Senate is to bring home the bacon to West Virginia.

Over the years, the veteran Mr. Byrd has kidnapped whole sections of the federal government and transplanted them to his home state. Just check the multitude of federal offices in West Virginia. Mr. Byrd is effective.

This time he was dubbed "King of the Road" for sending another $200 million for road improvements to West Virginia.

That Mr. Byrd is chair of the Senate Appropriations Committee helps him reach his goal of enriching West Virginia.

Of course, that's a powerful reason for West Virginia to keep electing him, as they have for more than a quarter-century.

To be known as a pork barrel expert is not an insult to Sen. Robert Byrd. It's an honor.

The more he appropriates for the home folks, the more they love him.

How about the needs of the country? To Mr. Byrd, they seem secondary.

THE VOTERS IN West Virginia are not alone in favoring someone who will bring home the bacon, or the whole pig. That's mainly the way the game or re-election is played.

A consistent theme among challengers for Michigan congressional seats is that Michigan doesn't get our fair share of federal spending. Michigan sends more to Washington than we get back.

The underlying theme seems to be that every state should get from the federal treasury at least as much as its taxpayers contribute — or more if possible.

If that argument were pure and complete, there would be no need for a federation of states in the first place. Each state could care for its own needs, by using its own resources.

The fact is there must be donor states, as well as receiver states. The federal government is going to spend more for naval yards in California than in Michigan, for example. It must spend more for engineering work in the Mississippi River than the AuSable, for another example.

The problem comes not in balancing spending with taxation, but in spending unwisely in states or districts where longevity and seniority have bestowed power upon myopic elected officials.

The job still requires a national view, not a parochial one. Such statesmanship is all too infrequent.

MEANWHILE, CONGRESS seals with yet another federal budget.

The 1994 Clinton Budget weighs in at a gargantuan $1.51 trillion.

An Associated Press story says the latest Clinton budget "would squeeze the federal deficit to $175.3 billion, the least red ink since 1989."

Is that an accomplishment? Not really. It still means our federal deficit jumps by $175 billion, to another new high. That's what deficit spending does.

The growth in debt continues, but not at quite a rapid pace as in recent years.

Perhaps taxpayers should be grateful for small favors — and a higher national debt is a small favor, indeed.

FROM THE MOUND By Dennis Mansfield

Normally, Dennis L. is a pretty happy-go-lucky kind of guy. For my friends, who are now laughing hysterically as they comment about my sometimes sarcastic attitude, I meant as I usually try to pick out the funnier side of life when writing "From The Mound."

That is until this week. I recently signed my name to a document I wished never existed, and no it was not a recall petition. It was a get-well poster hanging at the Pizza Hut in Grayling for Deena Speckman, 23, of Roscommon.

Speckman is currently at Munson Medical Center in Traverse City in critical condition after her car left the road and struck a tree late Sunday night on March 13.

Members of the Crawford County Sheriff Department, Beaver Creek and Grayling Township fire departments and North Flight EMS responded the accident site on North Higgins Lake Road in Beaver Creek Township. The "jaws of life" were needed to rescue Speckman from her car.

A week after the accident, I signed my name and a short message while really not knowing what to say to one of her friends and co-workers who stood nearby. Speckman has worked at the local restaurant for the last four years.

Her co-workers asked me to mention Deena, the accident and the sign which can still be found there. The sign is already almost full of names and good wishes, but one more can always be added.

As a reporter, I have covered many accidents, many times being at the scene just moments after the tragedy occurs.

My first accident coverage came about as I returned from a basketball game in Morris, a small town approximately 30 miles east of Lansing. At a stop light, a truck had driven through a red light and struck a car, killing the driver and seriously injuring the one passenger.

I got out of my car, asked the sheriff deputies there the questions I knew I had to ask. I found out one item I wished I didn't know. The people in the car had just been married 11 months before.

I chose journalism because of the excitement and the variety, with a new story just the corner. Sometimes what lies around the corner has served as a reminder of how fragile life truly is.

Get well, Deena.

LET'S TALK ABOUT IT By Joe Murphy

The old man has been dog sitting this weekend with my son Mike having to make a trip to Wisconsin with is boss.

The old dog and I have a lot in common. We are both old, fat, and lazy, so we get along pretty good. Mike should be back today to pick up the fuzz ball, and I can't say I will be sorry to see her go. It has been a good reminder to me as to why I don't want a dog around.

The past few years have been the first time since I was a kid that I didn't have a dog. Every once in awhile I start thinking, I should get one, but one weekend with fuzz ball reminds me why I don't have one.

Winter's cold, icy grip will soon be slipping as the sun gains warmth and longer days arrive. Soon, we will look back on the winter of '94 as history. A time of mighty cold weather and frozen water lines. I know the ground will be a long time thawing out.

The surface may be melting soon, but it will take a lot longer for that water line four or five feet down to thaw. If we were to have many winters this cold we might have perma frost, as they do in places such as Alaska.

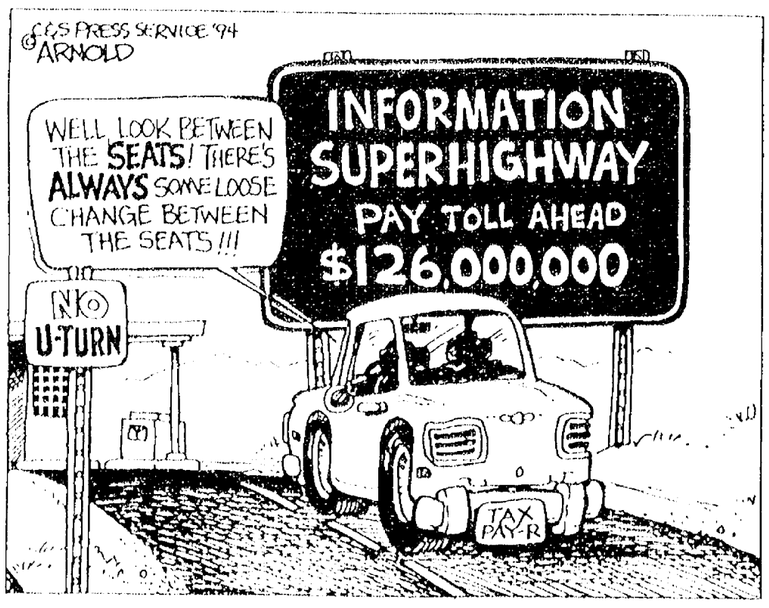

I am going to buy me a new metal detector with all the dials and gadgets on it and find me some good stuff this spring. If I should get the turkey permit I applied for, I could leave home in the morning with a shotgun, metal detector and mushroom bag. I could hunt turkeys early, then mushrooms, and if I found signs of old homesteads or lumber camps check them out with the detector.

I probably won't find much of anything, but as you old married men know, spring brings out the female's urge to clean out the nest. When that urge hits them the wise man arranges to be elsewhere. So I plan to be absent as much as possible until that is over.

I well remember those hours spent on a beautiful springtime day, beating rugs for my mom with that man-killing device called a rug beater. It was take up the rug, haul it outside and drape it over the clothesline, then beat your brains out until the last grain of sand or fleck of dust was pounded out of it. Now as soon as the snow is gone, I try to make myself scarce for a few days.

By the time this appears in the paper the vote on tax reform will be history. Both sides have been putting a lot of money in the battle for and against. It would be nice if we had the choice "none of the above" on the ballot.

This is a strange situation, where we the voters really have no choice. If we reject one plan the other takes effect. To me, that is like the old question (Have you stopped beating your wife? answer yes or no).

DNR limits burning permits during dry spring forest fire month of April 16-May 15

As always, when people think spring in northern Michigan there is the thought of the wildfire season. Early spring is the worst time for fires as all of the vegetation is dead and dry and is very susceptible to ignition from any kind of spark or flame, according to DNR officials.

"Last year was an exceptional year," according to Fire Supervisor Duane Brooks of the Grayling Department of Natural Resources field office. "We only had five fires that burned less than 10 acres. We've had as many as 69 fires in one year."

Brooks said the fire which ravaged the area on May 8, 1990 was the largest fire in Crawford County in recent years. That fire destroyed 5,916 acres of forest, 76 homes, 125 other structures and 37 vehicles, according to reports.

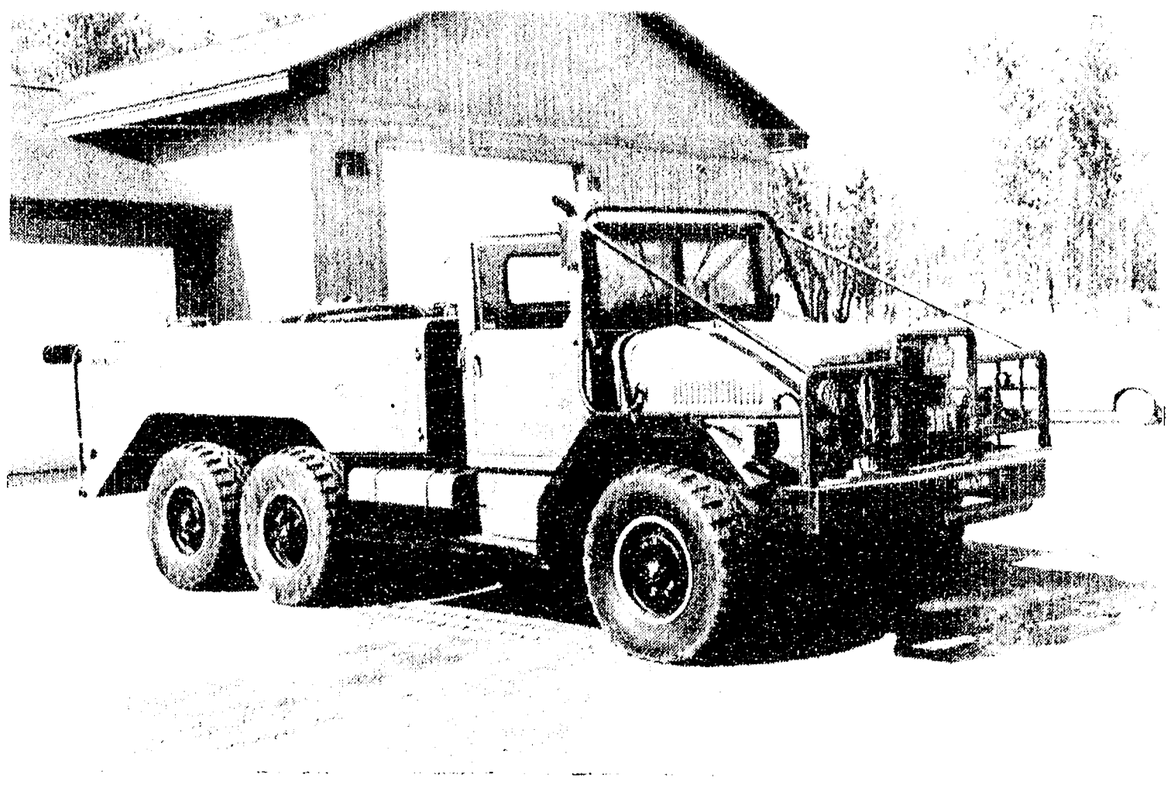

Debris burning is the number one cause of wildfire in Michigan. Again this year, burning permits will not be issued from April 16 through May 15. This means there will be no open burning of brush or leaves during that period. Camp fires will be allowed. If persons have any brush piles that they intend to burn, now is the time to do it before the ground is free of snow, Brooks said.

The DNR maintains an extensive forest fire fighting plan that is based on the concept of "zoned dispatch" in Crawford County and the surrounding counties. On days of high fire danger, heavy fire fighting equipment is station in strategic places throughout the area to provide quicker first responder capabilities.

"When a fire is reported, the equipment in that zone moves in and the equipment in other zones moves to replace it," Brooks said. "That way, we always have more equipment close by if we need it."

Brooks said most of Crawford County is in a zone by itself,S but when the fire danger is high, units from Oscoda County are positioned close by.

As always, burning permits are required any time the ground is not snow covered. These permits are free and may be obtained by calling the Department of Natural Resources office between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. at 348-6371.

DNR FIREFIGHTING EQUIPMENT ON STANDBY--This pumper/tanker fire truck is one of many pieces of heavy equipment kept on constant standby during the spring wildfire season in and around Crawford County.

Tree seedlings again available to Crawford/Rosco landowners

With spring just around the corner, the Crawford/Roscommon Soil and Water Conservation District is gearing up for its annual spring tree seedling program.

The program offers a variety of tree and shrub seedlings to the public to be plated for many different objectives.

Some of the more popular reasons for planting trees and shrubs over the years have been to establish windbreaks around fields, homes and driveways, privacy screens to block views and reduce noise, wildlife habitat improvements, family projects to grow your own Christmas trees, future income from harvesting, or simply to add aesthetic beauty to your landscape.

Whatever a person's needs may be, the Soil and Water Conservation District has species available to help you meet your objectives. Mike Brown, the district forester, is available to provide technical information about matching species to soil conditions, spacing recommendations, or answer any other forestry questions you may have.

For more information about this program, call the district office at 275-5231. The best time to plant a tree was 25 years ago, the next best time is today.

Thanks a Million

WEEKLY SYNDICATED COLUMN by PERCY ROSS

Millionaire Percy Ross is known for his philanthropic work. He offers help and encouragement for those in need. He has earned a fortune and a wealth of knowledge during his lifetime and wants to share both. His motto: "He who gives while he lives . . . also knows where it goes."

Close Only Counts In Horseshoes

Dear Mr. Ross: I need to ask you for bunkbeds because of my oldest son (12 years). He's a resident at Green Chimney Residential housing for emotionally disabled children. He's doing great now and soon he'll be home for good. But, before he can come home I must have adequate space and furnishings. My three children and I live in a two bedroom apartment. All three children share the same room (the master bedroom). Upon my son's return he must have a room to himself or with his brother, not his sisters. Due to a sexual assault on one sister a few years ago this is mandatory.

Bunkbeds would help because I could then put the boys back in their room and the girls and I can share the master bedroom. Ultimately this means my son's return would not be postponed. And, yes, my son and daughter are both receiving counseling--separately.

Ms. C. M. ... The Forum, Hackettstown, NJ

Dear Ms. M.: The word "always" is unrealistic except when it comes to appropriate sleeping arrangements for siblings. Boys and girls should ALWAYS be separated. If bunkbeds mean a new beginning, here's to a fresh start because my check is on the way.

Dear Mr. Ross: My 15 year old son is a teen volunteer at our hospital (see enclosed news clipping). Just recently, he was in charge of a bake sale. The shoe box of money was getting full, so he took $200 out, put it in an envelope and set it in a box next to him on the floor. As the bake sale progressed, waste paper was thrown into the box by mistake. He forgot about the money at the end of the day (now covered by waste paper) and put the box on the housekeeping cart to be dumped. The next day we were digging through the dumpsters at the hospital only to find out the trash had been removed at 6:00 a.m.!

He's a very responsible young man, and he's so upset. Because of him, Pro-teens can't buy the new oversized wheelchair they were working for, to give to the hospital. My husband has been on unemployment since last September. I'm a teacher's aide, so we're behind in a lot of payments and don't have the money to replace the $200. If you could replace this money, it would certainly take a load off one young man's mind.

Mrs. C. B. ... Isabella County Herald, Mt. Pleasant, MI

Dear Mrs. B.: This may break the heart of every parent whose teenager is involved in drugs and crime, but I read where the staff at Central Michigan Community Hospital has nicknamed your son "Doogie" (after the TV show character).

Most parents will never have a child prodigy who becomes a M.D., let alone a 15 year old who does volunteer work at a hospital because he truly cares about those less fortunate. Tell your "Doogie" to pick up his spirits, my $200 is in the mail.

Dear Mr. Ross: I wrote you 8 months ago and never heard one word or even two. The letter was about my having a heart attack. I lost my job and wanted you to pay off a bank loan I owed. My doctor said that if I could stop SMOKING I'd be just fine so that's my goal. It's a hard one for me as I've been doing it for over 30 years, but I'll never stop trying.

Another thing--I'm back looking for a job. I found one for one day a week cleaning a lady's house. Did I mention I have six children and they are helping me with my loan until I can get back on my feet again? Now if I could just cure this dirty old habit, my old ticker would be in better shape. I want to try the nicotine patches, as I heard they work but are quite costly. I don't have a red cent extra. If you could find it in your heart, to help an old heart that's got a lot of love left to give, well, you know!

Mrs. G. M. ... Messenger, Missoula, MT

Dear Mrs. M.: Glad to hear the old heart took a lickin' and kept on tickin'. The best advice I have, as a person who quit cigarette smoking over 40 years ago, is the only way to stay quit is by never lighting up another cigarette. If you think the patches will help--you're on! My check's on the way, along with the very best of luck.

Write Percy Ross, P.O. Box 39000-B, Minneapolis, MN 55439. Include your phone number and name of this publication. All letters are read. Only a few are answered in this column; others may be acknowledged privately.

OBITUARIES

Pearl Ellison

God saw you were getting tired,
And a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around you,
And said "Come home with Me."

Pearl Isabel Ellison, formerly of Frederic, passed away Wednesday, March 16, 1994, at the age of 75. She had lost a nine month battle with cancer.

Sadly missed by all who knew her, Mrs. Ellison was a loving and caring mother of 10 children. Donald and wife, Anita of Colorado, Phyllis and husband, Joe Oien of Hibbing, MN, Kenneth and wife, Mary of Mason, Judy Parish of Gaylord, Rod and wife, Sue of Gladstone, Nancy Krieling of Boca Raton, FL, Pat and husband, Earl Lund of Effie, MN, Tom and wife, Julie, and Robert and wife, Sue, both of Frederic, and Roger and wife, Lou of Vermontville.

Mrs. Ellison loved deeply and shared her life with 26 grandchildren and 35 great-grandchildren. She also leaves behind a devoted niece, Elaine and husband, Ed Dringenberg of Lansing.

While living in Frederic, Mrs. Ellison was employed by the Crawford County Social Services and as a census taker.

A funeral service was held in Hibbing, MN on Saturday, March 19, and she will be laid to rest in Lansing beside her son, Billy, who preceded her in death.

Mothers and roses are much the same,
Both are God's masterpieces...
Each with a different name.

In memory of

Dan,
You'll be loved and missed forever.
Your other
mom and dad,
Joan and Stu Rose

1994 maple syrup queen named

Noddea Moore, a sophomore at Mio AuSable High School has been named the Michigan Maple Syrup Queen for 1994, Senator John Pridnia, R-Hubbard Lake, announced Monday, March 14.

Moore, whose family has been involved in Maple Syrup production in northern Michigan for more than 30 years, is 16-years-old and lives in Luzerne. Her father, Floyd Moore, first started making syrup in the Vermontville area in 1959. In 1960, Mr. Moore started production in Ocqueoc and had more than 8,500 taps. He became the first president of the Maple Syrup Association, the Michigan representative on the National Maple Council and the first person in the state to use a vacuum pump on tubing.

"It is my hope this announcement sheds light on a very unique and important industry in northern Michigan—maple syrup production," Pridnia said. "Some of Noddea's earliest memories include helping tap trees and taking her classmates on tours of the family operation."

"Noddea is promoting a unique industry that makes northern Michigan a special place and is deserving of the honor of being named Michigan's Maple Syrup Queen," Pridnia said.

Noddea Moore replaces outgoing Maple Syrup Queen Lachelle Haigh.

ABWA 'Boss/Business Associate Night' scheduled for April 21

Do you have a boss, a supervisor, a business associate or a secretary you feel deserves special recognition?

If so, this is an opportunity to have that person receive a special award from ABWA as the "1994 Boss or Business Associate of the Year."

To nominate this special someone, an individual just needs to write, in 250 words or less, why their boss or co-worker should be chosen. Send nominations by April 11 to: ABWA, c/o Sandra Moore, P.O. Box 4, Grayling, MI 49738.

The only restriction is that they must live in and work in this area. A committee will review all the nominations and you will be notified.

The award will be presented at the annual ABWA Boss/Business Associate Night held at the Chief Shoppenagon Hotel on Thursday, April 21, at 6:30 p.m. There will be dinner, a 50/50 raffle, the awards, and later dancing to the music of LaCroix. Tickets are $15 per person or $25 per couple.

This is a great way to show a boss or co-worker appreciation for what they do, how hard they work, and how they treat others.

During the evening, ABWA will also present an award to their special "1994 Woman of the Year."

Senior Citizen News

By Jan Farley

Our thought for the week is: Give some people an inch and they'll think they're rulers!

The "Wearin' of the Green," certainly was evident last Wednesday at our St. Patrick's dance! There was hardly one person that didn't have some green on; and would you believe that there are, at least, 47 different shades of green! Everyone had a very nice time dancing and singing the old Irish songs.

The "Top Hats" Kitchen Band travels to Roscommon this Thursday to perform for the Masonic and Eastern Star folks at their potluck. Good times will be had by all.

Our "BK" bingo-birthday party was a huge success. So many of the seniors are enjoying celebrating one another's birthdays and playing "BK" bingo. No pun intended, but they had a whopping good time.

We are in desperate need of Meals on Wheels drivers! We have an opening for the Frederic route and the town route. The Frederic route is for five days a week, but we can divide this up if we get two or more drivers. This route takes approximately 1 1/2 to 2 hours once you get to know it. The town route is for Wednesdays only and takes approximately 1/2 hour to an hour once you get to know it. If interested please contact RSVP at 348-4341. You will receive mileage reimbursement. Just think of the good you will be doing delivering meals to people who can't get out or do for themselves. For more information contact Gloria Mologianes, director of RSVP in Crawford and Roscommon counties.

The meals at the center are good, nourishing, well-balanced meals, plus the idea of not having to cook it yourself and do the dishes should make it a grand idea to come in more often. Any senior in Crawford County that is 60 years of age or older; or is the spouse of a senior; and regardless of their income, race, creed and national origin, are welcome.

The suggested donation for your meal is $1.50 and if you have friends or relatives that you want to bring with you and they are under the age limit, their meal only costs $2.50. Reservations are appreciated but not required, however, it helps to have a general idea to insure an adequate amount of food.

Congregate meals are served at noon and 5 p.m., Monday through Thursday and at noon on Fridays. Menus are subject to change and are listed as Lunch/Dinner:

March 23-Pot Roast/Oven Pork and Veggies;

March 24-Spaghetti & Meatballs/ Stuffed Steak;

March 25-Sweet & Sour Pork;

March 28-Italian Round Steak/ Chicken & Rice;

March 29-Chicken Ala King/ Connecticut Ham;

March 30-Breaded Fish/Roast Beef;

March 31-Stuffed Peppers/Pork Roast;

April 1-Good Friday, Center is closed.

Coming Events

Mark your calendars for:

Remember that the center will be closed on Good Friday, April 1.

GSB announces 1993 Employee of the Year

Grayling State Bank recently announced the selection of Joyce Renon as the 1993 Employee of the Year, according to Richard Albee, chair and CEO of the local financial institution.

The award was presented at the annual employee dinner on Jan. 29. Renon began her career at GSB on Dec. 7, 1988 as a teller. She was promoted to head teller of the main office on Oct. 8, 1992.

Renon was recognized for her outstanding sales, and the quality of service she provides her customers. She puts others first, and practices the GSB philosophy of going the extra mile to provide quality service, according to bank officials.

In nominating Renon, Geraldine VanSickle, branch coordinator, said, "Joyce is a team leader who always gives 100% of her time and energy to GSB. Her quiet and pleasant personality is a plus for GSB customers, and staff."

Renon has attended North Central Michigan College, and is currently enrolled at Kirtland Community College.

The '94 Milltown Follies underway

Rehearsals for the 1994 edition of the Grayling Milltown Follies are underway with the show scheduled for the second weekend in June.

Presently 50 area residents who have attained the minimum age of 50 years have joined the company. However, according to director Howard Taylor, that is about half the number needed.

Rehearsals for the 'follies' are presently being held every Thursday afternoon at 2 p.m. at the senior center on Lawndale Street. Anyone who might be interested in participating in this year's production is encouraged to attend. Rehearsals last for about an hour and a half.

Rehearsals consist of singing some old songs that most people really enjoy singing and learning one or two new old songs that you might not be familiar with. Everyone sings melody, nobody reads music, everybody has a really good time, Taylor said.

Recently, the Grayling Milltown Follies became a legitimate organization and the newly elected Board of Directors met for their organizational meeting of St. Patrick's Day. Members selected to serve two year terms on the board were Jackie Norcross, Betty Price, Delphine Nowaczyk and Eleanor Gebhard. Elected to one year terms were Tina Kennedy, Clyde Nash and Mae Engel.

The next meeting of the board will be 3:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 31. For more information about the 'follies' call 348-5187.

Author to visit local schools, libraries

Michigan author Janie Lynn Panagopoulos will be visiting several libraries in the Grayling area this week.

Between March 24 and March 28, Panagopoulos, a resident of Bellaire, will be presenting programs at Grayling and Frederic elementary schools, and the Grayling Middle School. She will also be giving an adult talk at the Crawford County Library on Friday, March 25 at 5:30 p.m.

Panagopoulos has written two books for upper elementary children. Her first published book, Traders in Time, A Dream-Quest Adventure, is about two boys who travel to 1796 to embark on a fur trading adventure. Her second book, Journey Back to Lumberjack Camp, is another time travel book, this time set during Michigan's lumbering boom. Both books are set in Michigan and have been used extensively in classrooms to teach Michigan history.

Panagopoulos states, "Students need to do more than simply read history. In a country where too many children know more about cartoon characters than they do about the heroes and heroines of their region's history, it's time to help teach young people that facts can be more fun and fascinating than fiction."

Terri Wakeley, a second grade teacher, originated the idea of having Panagopoulos visit after reading Traders in Time to her class. Wakeley says, "The kids liked the book and the author lives so close to Grayling that I thought it would be great to have them actually meet her." She mentioned the idea to Jenny Cota, school librarian, who contacted Panagopoulos and made the other arrangements.

In addition to her documentary historical novels, Panagopoulos has worked for 12 years as a research historian, publishing over 1,000 articles. Currently, she is working on a third Dream-Quest novel and an adult novel.

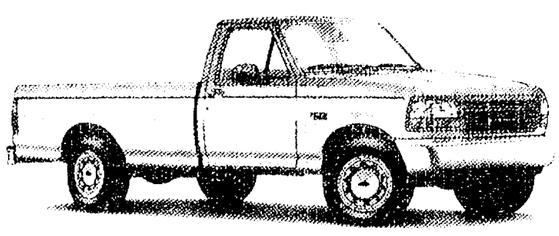

Panagopoulos will be at the Grayling Elementary library on March 24, at Grayling Middle School on March 25 and at the Frederic Elementary on March 28. She will be discussing the writing process and facts of Michigan history.

During her presentation at the county library on the night of March 25, Panagopoulos will again discuss Michigan history and provide some tips on how to become a published author. She will have copies of her books available for purchase and autographs.

Knights of Columbus set for annual Tootsie Roll drive

There are more than 300,000 children and adults in Michigan who have mental disorders, and they are seeking support from local residents.

Every contributor will receive a Tootsie Roll. So, on Friday and Saturday, K of C members are hoping people will take a walk in downtown Grayling, or to Glen's or Kmarts in Grayling, and help your Grayling Knights of Columbus volunteers with their drive by making a contribution to the fund to assist these special citizens of Michigan.

It is just a small way to say you care very much, but a big way to do your share.

Beth Brewer
Spring is fun you can play all day.
You can teeter-totter.
You can swing.

James Devins
When you said Spring shoots up in the air,
It reminds me that fireworks can go up in the air.

Nicole Roman
When the snow melts
It comes spring.
You can swing
And the birds sing,
And you can play with your dog.

Ashley Murray
The moon is like a star
That glows like a flower.

Josh Stampfly
Spring comes in like it wants to.

There is some grass on the playground
And the snow is melting
And spring is coming
And the sun comes out.

I like spring
Because we can have fun stuff in spring
Like fireworks in the sky.

Joshua Galvani
Spring we like
Because it is warm like the sun.

Cory Haberland

Like the flowers bloom.

Erica Fenn
The winter is like an ice cube.
And summer is like a dark, dark, dark piece of paper.
Fall is like a pretty picture.
Spring is like a hot pot.

Gary Feeney
Spring comes in how it wants to.
Why does it want to?
Because buds are coming out.

Amber Pindell
I like the way that Spring
Comes in like a lamb
That is soft and fuzzy.

Nathanial Shipman
Spring is gentle
And like a lamb
And a flower
And I like it
And it is beautiful.

WHY USE A TRAVEL AGENT?

Have you ever wondered if it might be cheaper to make your own travel arrangements?

After all, where does a travel agent "profit" but from your pockets?

Not at all. In reality, travel agents are one of the best bargains around. Their income is collected through commissions from airlines, hotels, tour operators and cruise lines. These commissions are built into the retail price - meaning that you pay the same whether you use an agent or not. Plus, a good agent can help you:

- Find the least expensive airfare and best prices on your chosen vacation.
- Match the right vacation to your personality and interests.
- Recommend accommodations, restaurants, sightseeing, etc.
- Make all of your reservations for you.
- Arrange for insurance protection, passport and visa applications and other foreign travel requirements.

A good travel agent can make vacation planning almost as carefree as the vacation itself. Do yourself a favor, let us make all your travel arrangements.

GRAYLING MIDDLE SCHOOL

(The following two stories are examples of work from first semester journalism students at Grayling Middle School.)

By Jason Potter
Violence in movies can affect the viewers

No one can sit down and watch one hour of television and not see a violent act. The most recent, controversial and violent cartoon appearing on the networks is Beavis and Butthead.

This program has been accused of setting a bad example for its viewers. Children watching this show are performing some of the same acts as the cartoon characters and getting hurt. The scenes showing Beavis and Butthead playing with fire were so bad that it had to be taken off. Matt Klooster (7) comments that he thinks they make the movies so violent because "that is to appeal to the interest of the general public, [but] violence doesn't affect my actions."

Jesse Wininger (7) adds, "They make them violent because people like violence and a lot of action, and the violence doesn't affect my behavior." Seventh grader Josh Mueller states, "People like violence, so that is what they watch, and movie violence doesn't affect my behavior."

Jurassic Park: It could happen!
By Justin Raddatz

The movie Jurassic Park was a big push to the scientists that were working on how to bring dinosaurs back to life in laboratories around the world by using the art of cloning. Scientists have three basic steps:

Step I: Finding DNA. Most scientists find DNA in fossilized form. PBS explained that scientists are trying to bring the dinosaurs back to life by cloning, a long and hard process.

A scientist in London digs dinosaur bones in Montana. He brings the dinosaur bones to his lab, where he and his staff cut to the bone marrow and find 63 million year old dinosaur blood full of DNA! But putting them all together takes an estimated two years.

A father and son from Nevada find mosquitoes fossilized in tree sap, just like the movie. But they are not always full of blood. It takes four hours just to get to the mosquito, and getting the blood out is even more difficult. They stick a needle in the area where the blood is stored, but most of the time there is no blood.

Step 2: Cloning a dinosaur. Most scientists are trying to clone them in test tubes, but some scientists from California say that the ostrich is very closely related to the dinosaur. Their eggs are the right size for most of the dinosaurs. Scientists plan to take a freshly laid ostrich egg and inject the dinosaur DNA into it to change the ostrich into a dinosaur.

Step 3: Where to put the dinosaurs. A scientist from Florida says that a superb place for the dinosaurs would be the San Diego Zoo, in the desert land. He says that is most like the natural dinosaur habitat. They would feed smaller dinosaurs to the meat eaters and hay for the plant eaters.

Another scientist from Florida says that a good place to put the dinosaurs would be in the Florida Everglades with the plant life, so the meat eaters could feed on the plant caters and the plant eaters could eat the Everglades, which has lots of prehistoric plants.

Indian Bobby
by Rebecca Ramaswamy, age 7
edited by Rachel Ramaswamy, age 10

Chapter 1

Indian Bobby was four years old and lived alone in the forest. With is pet raccoon Smith. Smith was very sly and had an eye like a dragon. He could see a predator from 100 miles away. Indian Bobby loved him and took good care of him with skill and braveness. He owned a bow and arrow because his father gave it to him.

Chapter 2

Indian Bobby was hunting, and so was another man. The man did not know about Smith and so he shot him, BOOM! Indian Bobby cried and cried Smith was dead for good.

Chapter 3

Poor Indian Bobby, he was all alone now and he was scared too. Then he cheered up and said, "There are many more raccoons besides this one." There was silence. "But not like Smith!" shouted Indian Bobby, and he started to cry.

Chapter 4

Indian Bobby was sad. He cried some more. Indian Bobby makes a small grave for Smith next to his mother and father's graves. It was very sad.

Chapter 5

Indian Bobby was walking on a trail of green things, with three birds above him. A red one with a feather which was the queen. A green one which was the king, and a blue one which was the princess. Even stranger was that an orange castle was above him.

"WOW!" said Indian Bobby.

There were names at the top of all nine windows. Just then the birds were coming at it. Indian Bobby did not wonder why it was their home. They left clouds of smoke behind them of red, green and blue.

Chapter 6

Indian Bobby was now with a fairy of red blue and green. I am the fairy of the three birds and their castle of light. You can stay with them. You are welcome there dear. "Hello, said Indian Bobby, "The fairy said I was welcome here."

"You may stay in the king's room," said the queen.

"Hello, said Indian Bobby, the fairy said I was welcome here."

"You may sleep in the princess' room," said the king.

"Hello, said Indian Bobby, the fairy said I was welcome here."

"You are, little boy," said the princess, who was terribly nice.

Chapter 7

Indian Bobby slept beside the princess' nest in an orange nest made out of straw. He was covered with a blue blanket. "AHHHHHHHH" cried Indian Bobby. "Your feather's huge!" "Don't worry, said the princess, "every other day she'll put on a BIG FEATHER.

"Oh," said Indian Bobby.

"Come for breakfast, you two," said the queen, the king will be here soon."

So they all went for breakfast.

Chapter 8

That night was the royal ball the castle was full of birds. There was a sign it said THE ROYAL BALL.

Indian Bobby was so nervous he ran to the princess' room and did not go back downstairs.

The princess heard his footsteps. She went to cheer him up and it was working perfect.

The Bible Speaks

From the Calvary Baptist Church

Is Christian Unity a cult?

Exposing teachings contrary to the Bible is important to defending the Christian faith. (Jude 3). The following quotes are from literature mailed from the Unity School of Christianity headquarters, Unity Village, MO, as representing their beliefs. While appearing vague by claiming "no dogmatic statement of faith" or doctrine, and that their "teaching crosses denominational lines," yet many beliefs seem clear in their literature.

What is their authority? While they claim to believe in the superiority of the Christian Bible, they also claim "other scriptures contain spiritual truths." Beyond these claims to truth, they profess, "that as our spiritual consciousness expands, we will receive ever increasing revelations of Truth." They claim their basic teachings came from the "interpretation that came to Charles and Myrtle Fillmore," the co-founders of their group.

The teaching of modernistic universalism seems clear in the following quotes from Unity: "Thus, we are all children of God, and the qualities of God are inherent in us." "Unity believes in Jesus as the one person who brought into full expression His divine nature, the Christ." "The difference between Jesus and us is not one of inherent spiritual capacity but a difference in demonstration of it. Jesus was potentially perfect, and He expressed that perfection: we are potentially perfect, but we have not expressed it." Unity appears to teach salvation through the "divinity" of man and not the "deity" of Jesus Christ. Unity stresses Jesus Christ merely as an example, not a Savior. Unity makes "Christ" into a created thing called "it." "The Christ in us never changes: it always has been and always will be the perfection that God created." Unity appears to believe like Eastern mystics, Mormons, and New Agers concerning the person of Christ.

Their descriptive literature made no claims to infallible truth from any religious source. It did not teach the virgin birth or deity of Jesus Christ as God. It made no mention of the true gospel of how Jesus Christ died for our sins, was buried, and arose bodily the third day to grant believing sinners forgiveness of sins and eternal life. (I Co. 15:3, 4; and Gal. 1:6-9).

"For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.... Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son. If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into [your] house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." (2 JO 1:7, 9-11).

"What is Truth?" This profound question was asked by Pilate just before handing Jesus over to be crucified. It is a question that every person must ask. An unexamined life is not worth living. But how do we think beyond our thinking? How can we know beyond our knowing? How do we even begin to know what needs to be questioned. We all live in an environment of accepted "truth." An environment established by our culture, our religions, and our family. To be able to see the false within the truth is the beginning of wisdom. Sometimes our search for truth is much like the fish looking for the ocean. It is very difficult to question the dominate reality. We are so used to it. It seems so right. It is what our parents believed, what our ministers preached, it is woven into the fabric of our everyday lives like colloquial language usage that makes correct written language seem wrong. How then does one begin a meaningful spiritual quest? It is frightening to begin to question that which we have accepted as truth from childhood. Throughout history those who have dared to ask the unaskable have met with resistance. Galillio was silenced by the church when he suggested that the sun did not revolve around the earth. Jesus was crucified for teaching a truth beyond the accepted teachings of the church. During the "Inquisition" the church burned seekers of truth at the stake for reading the Bible. Throughout history the church has silenced the Christian Mystics who came to understand the great truth of their inner divinity. Persons like Teilhard de Chardin, Miester Eckhart, Hildegard of Bingen and others.

When the diciples told Jesus that there were people, not in their group, who were doing miracles in his name, and that they had tried to stop them, Jesus responded by saying, "Do not stop him, ...Whoever is not against us is for us." (Mk 9:40)

Unity has no dogmatic statement of faith. Rather, it encourages its followers to be seekers of their own inner truth and to ask those questions that take them beyond dogmatic doctrine. We believe that Jesus was speaking to each of us when he said, "When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all truth." (Jn 16:12) and that this Spirit of truth "...abides with you, and he will be in you." (Jn 14:17) We believe that every sincere seeker will be directed by this inner activity of God's Spirit to attain a richer and more satisfying spiritual life. "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled." (Matt 5:6)

The Legacy of the Lily

Pale, pure, and still...Christ Jesus' body lay drawn unto itself, shadowed in the transluscence of burial linen, hidden in the darkness of the grave.

So the lily slumbers, closed unto itself in the darkness of night, appearing without life or luster; yet God has created the lily to blossom with the light of day...to open wide its pale, pure, translusent petals to greet the heavens and reflect His divine plan.

Christ's crucification and resurrection were the true personification of God's plan. Though we are born into sin and suffering, through His death on the cross our sins are forgiven if only we believe in this, God's sacrifice of His Son.

As we open our hearts with praise and thanksgiving for God's gift of salvation, may we appreciate these glorious white blooms of the season, their petals spread wide with promise...the legacy of the lilly.

VERSE OR WORSE

My Haven

When trouble and worry begins to bother me
When TV and the newspapers are full of crime
There is my secret little haven
Where everything is still real fine

It's where in days of childhood
I used to dream of days to be
Though others might pass and never notice it
It was a very special place to me

When my day's work and chores were over
I would saddle my pony and ride
To where I could watch the world dissolve into darkness
While sitting quiet at the river's side

It is where the river makes a sharp bend
Where the water gurgles like a distant voice
Though at times a fisherman might spoil my reverie
It always was my first choice

When my day had been long and busy
I might doze off wearing a little smile
While my pony chewed the lush green grass
Happy to let my body rest a while

But most times I just listened to that distant voice
That seemed to be telling me stories of days gone by
Tales of Indians, traders and lumberjacks
Who used it and abused it, then left it to die

Even now when life becomes too hectic
I visit my haven at the river's bend
And the distant voice that offers comfort
Is that of Jesus Christ, my friend

PET CARE TIPS

In the winter, pets can have trouble with dry skin, just like humans. If your cat's coat seems unusually dry, try adding one teaspoon of vegetable oil to her food once a week. More frequent brushings may also help to stimulate her own natural oils. A humidifier can also give relief. If the problem is severe, ask your veterinarian for advice.

Glen's celebrates 'Grand Re-opening'

Customers, local officials and store representatives on Monday celebrated the "Grand Re-opening" of the Glen's Market on the I-75 Business Loop in Grayling.

Ceremonies included a traditional ribbon cutting, and the presentation of a key to the City of Grayling to Glen A. Catt, president of the supermarket chain, from Mayor Robert Golnick.

Performances by the Grayling High School Jazz Band and GHS theater students dressed as costume characters added to the festivities.

The renovation of the local supermarket, costing more than $750,000, started in August of last year, has expanded the store from approximately 32,000 square feet to more than 47,000 square feet of space, according to store officials.

"It's been seven months this project has lasted," said Bill Noeske, store director. "We thank our customers for being patient. Hopefully, their trials and tribulations now will well be worth it."

"We've made Glen's a bigger, better place for our Grayling customers," said Catt. "The new store will provide our customers in Grayling with a new, modern facility to enjoy.

"We're looking forward to being able to better serve our customers in a modern, updated grocery facility," he added.

The remodeled store will offer several new departments, including fresh seafood service, a walk-in beverage cooler and a new video display room with more than 2,500 titles.

In addition to new departments, the store will feature an expanded variety in grocery, fresh fruit and vegetables, meat, frozen foods, dairy, deli and general merchandise, as well as the Glen's Pharmacy.

"It's an open room," Noeske said of the new video rental display. "It should make it quicker and easier for customers to rent a video.

"Everyone of our departments are expanded as far as variety," he added.

The number of people employed at Glen's has increased, as well.

"We've roughly added, in the last three weeks, about 20 associates," Noeske said. "We employ about 145 people now."

That number ranks Glen's Market in the top five employers in Crawford County, according to the Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce.

A come from behind 70-66 victory by the Cadillac Vikings, knocks Grayling Vikings out of regional tourney. Season ends with 20-3 record.

ANDERSEN GOES FOR THE HOOP--Senior Viking Kris Andersen goes up for a jump shot while his Cadillac opponent sneaks in to block the shot. Andersen finished the season as the Viking scoring leader by pumping in 509 points for a 22 point-per-game average.

WOLCOTT SAVES THE BALL--Senior Chris Wolcott jumps to avoid the out-of-bounds line after tossing the ball back into play. Grayling ended a great 20-3 basketball season by dropping the regional tournament game to Cadillac, 70-66.

By TerryWright
Staff Writer

The dream season for the 1994 Grayling Viking varsity basketball team ended on Friday, March 18 at the hands of the Cadillac Vikings.

Cadillac ended the Vikings' season with a 70-66 regional tournament come-from-behind victory and left Grayling with a 20-3 overall season record.

The Cadillac Vikings continued into the regional championship game on Saturday, where they were defeated by Ishpeming Westwood by a score of 65-51.

Grayling started the game very strong, scoring 24 points in the first quarter, while holding Cadillac to just 12 points.

"The kids came out and really played well," Viking Coach Tom Mills said,.

In the second and third quarters, Grayling held the advantage but was outscored by the Cadillac squad by one point in the second and three points in the third.

"They slowly picked away at our lead," Mills said. "Cadillac was a good team, they were patient and moved the ball until they had a good shot. We came out well in the second half, but we got in foul trouble."

In the final stanza with Grayling leading 52-44, Cadillac's senior standout Steve Soneral scored 15 of his game high 27 points and post man Paul Seeley began crashing the boards for rebound after rebound.

With 5:29 remaining in regulation play, holding a 54-51 lead, Grayling senior scoring ace, Kris Andersen, fouled out of the game.

Two and one-half minutes later, Cadillac had captured a one point lead 60-59. Then Grayling senior Chris Wolcott joined Andersen on the bench. At the :40 mark, junior Shane Hinkle fouled out and Cadillac cruised to the 70-66 victory.

"You never expect your season to end, but ours has come to an end," Mills said. "You don't always get what you want."

Senior center Jeff Mier led the Grayling scorers tossing in 20 points. Hinkle scored 19 points, and junior Ben Croze scored 15 points. Kris Andersen scored nine points in a valiant effort that saw him play his entire game with a torn calf muscle.

Mier also led the Grayling rebounders pulling down eight boards. Croze added six steals, and Wolcott and Tim Donahoe added five assists each.

Cadillac hit on 22 of 35 field goal attempts for a 63 percent average.

Grayling hit 52 percent on 24 of 46 attempts.

From the free throw line, Cadillac hit 68 percent sinking 23 of 34. Grayling hit 15 of 23 for 65 percent.

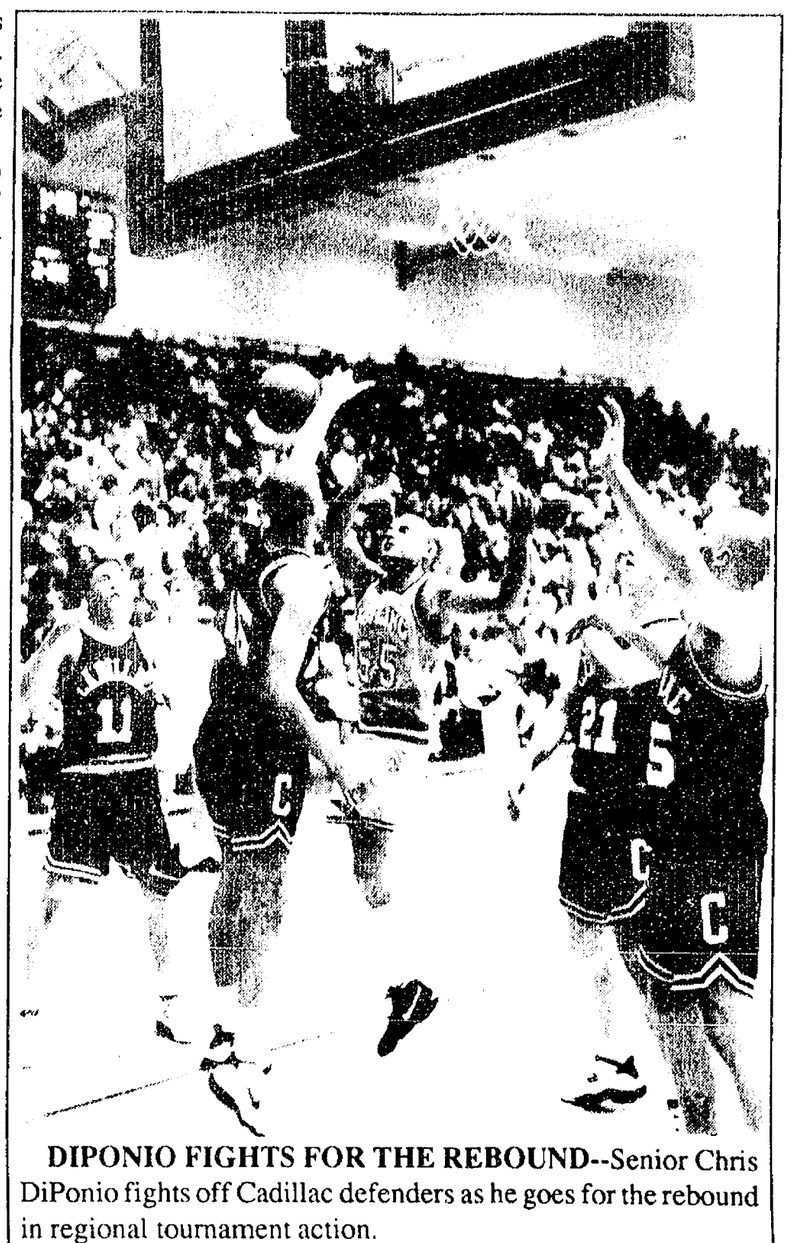

"We can be proud of these kids," Mills said. "They've given everything they have all season long and they have done a tremendous job. It was hard saying goodbye to the seniors.

"They will have a fine team next year," Mills added. "I look for them to have success."

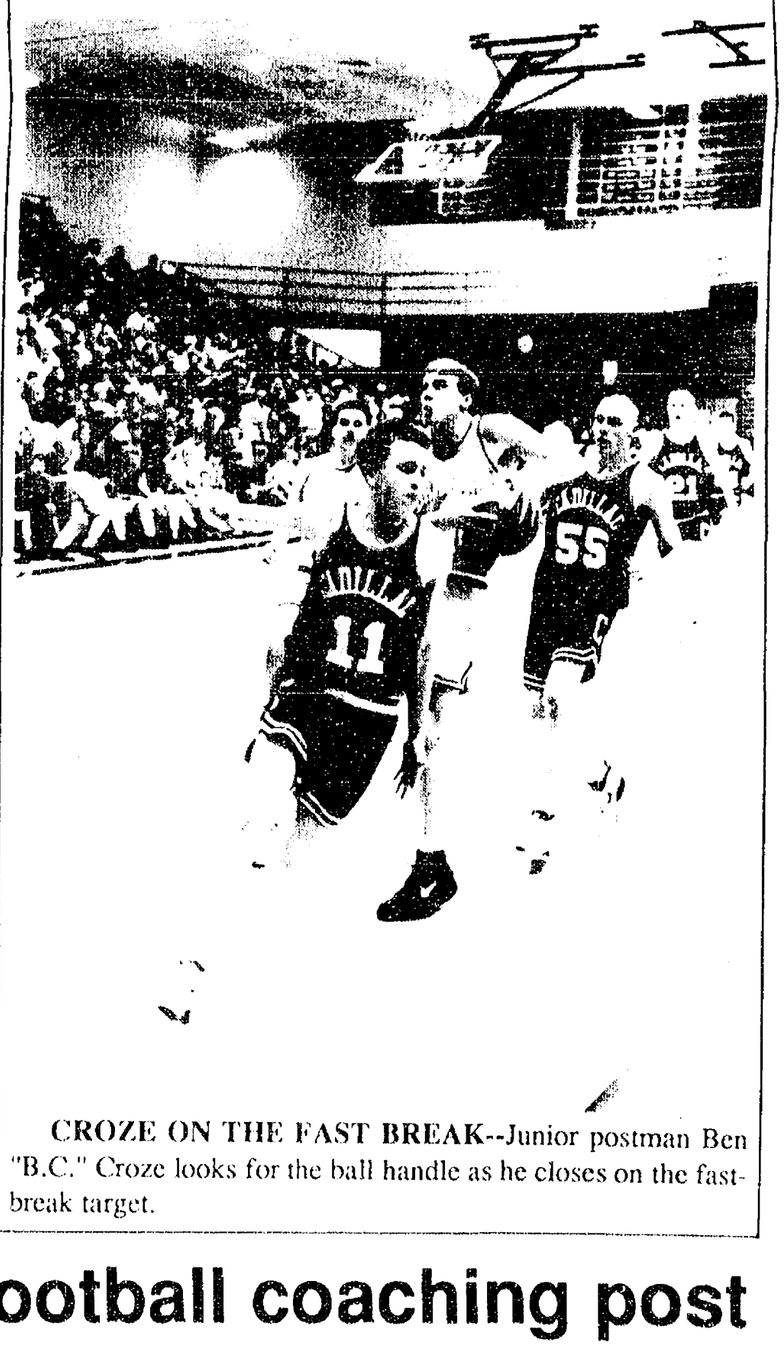

The season's end marked the end of Mills' career as head varsity boys basketball coach. He will hand over the coaching reigns to someone new next year, although he will continue to coach varsity girls' basketball.

The team will hold their annual post-season banquet on Monday, March 28 at the Holiday Inn.

"You never expect your season to end, but ours has come to an end," Mills said. "You don't always get what you want."

DIPONIO FIGHTS FOR THE REBOUND--Senior Chris DiPonio fights off Cadillac defenders as he goes for the rebound in regional tournament action.

CROZE ON THE FAST BREAK--Junior postman Ben "B.C." Croze looks for the ball handle as he closes on the fast-break target.

Larkin accepts head football coaching post at Class-AA Flint Carmen-Ainsworth for '94

Grayling High School varsity football coach Dave Larkin announced this week he has accepted a head coaching position at Flint Carmen-Ainsworth High School.

Carmen-Ainsworth is in the Class-AA, Big Nine Conference of schools in the Flint area.

"This is an opportunity I just couldn't turn down," Larkin said. "Not only is it a great coaching opportunity, but it'll get me closer to the rest of my family. The number one reason I've accepted the position is to be closer to my third-grade daughter in East Lansing. I see her every other weekend. I'll only be 40 minutes away now."

Larkin came to Grayling in 1991 from an assistant coaching position in the Flint area. In his three years as the Viking head coach, his teams compiled a record of 15 wins and 12 losses, and collected two conference division championships, and one state Class-B playoff berth.

Under Larkin's guidance, four of his players received all-state awards, 12 were named to the all-conference first team and nine earned all-conference honorable mention honors.

In 1992, Larkin was named the Michigan Region-I Class-B coach of the year.

"I'm sad about leaving my friends in Grayling," Larkin said. "But, I'm excited about the new opportunity. It'll be a real challenge. Carmen-Ainsworth hasn't had a winning season in about eight years. I'll be somewhat under the gun."

In making the announcement, Larkin said he first informed the other Grayling coaches, then called a special meeting of returning football players.

"I wanted the players to hear it from me," Larkin said. "They were shocked at first. After I explained why I'm leaving, they all congratulated me and wished me well.

"I think I'm leaving the GHS football program in good shape. We've replaced all the varsity uniforms and much of the practice equipment since I've been here. We have the best equipment in the league. Whoever takes over will be set," Larkin added.

Larkin said his wife, Terri, is excited about the move also. "She has a Master's degree in counseling and she is excited about being in a place where she'll be able to put it to use," he said. "She's been very supportive."

Larkin said he has had other job offers, but was not interested in leaving Grayling. He said he turned down the head coaching job in Ludington last year.

"I want to thank Kent Reynolds, Ben Laser and Mike Branch for giving me the opportunity to coach in Grayling," Larkin said. "I also want to thank the coaching staff, all the players and the community for supporting the football program in Grayling."

New MDNR ice shanty law takes effect April 1 on Michigan lakes

A new state law regulating the placement of ice shanties for fishing on public waters will take effect on April 1. The law, 1993 P.A. 274, will replace existing legislation enacted in 1943, and contains major changes in requirements and oversight.

"This new legislation will address long-standing concerns of local units of government regarding the safety of water bodies within their jurisdiction, while providing ice anglers with definite guidelines to follow as they participate in this type of sport fishing," DNR Director Roland Harmes said.

Anglers will be required to have the name and address of the owner permanently affixed to all sides of the shanty in legible letters not less than two inches in height. It will no longer be permissible to place the information on a board or similar material and then attach the board to the shanty.

Shanties placed on Upper Peninsula waters and waters of the Great Lakes adjacent to the Upper Peninsula must be removed prior to midnight on March 31 of each year.

Shanties placed on waters in Emmet, Cheboygan, Presque Isle, Charlevoix, Leelanau, Antrim, Otsego, Montmorency, Alpena, Benzie, Grand Traverse, Kalkaska, Crawford, Oscoda, Alcona, Manistee, Wexford, Missaukee, Roscommon, Ogemaw, Iosco, Mason, Lake, Osceola, Clare, Gladwin, Arenac, Oceana, Newaygo, Mecosta, Isabella, Midland, or Bay counties, or waters of the Great Lakes adjacent to these counties, must be removed by midnight of March 15 of each year. Shanties placed on the ice in the remaining counties of Michigan, or adjacent Great Lakes waters except Lake St. Clair, shall be removed from the ice by midnight of March 1 of each year.

Shanties placed on the Michigan waters of Lake St. Clair must be removed by sundown of the first Sunday after Feb. 20 of each year.

After these dates, a shanty may be used in fishing but must be removed at the conclusion of each day's fishing activity. In all cases, shanties must be removed earlier if ice conditions become unsafe.

In an effort to make the use of ice shanties as uniform as possible across the state, the new law prohibits a local unit of government from regulating the placement, use, marking or removal of ice shanties, and will void any ordinances, rules or regulations currently in effect.

Persons violating the provisions of this law will face a fine of not less than $100 or more than $500, imprisonment up to 30 days, or both. If a violation of the law results in a shanty falling through the ice, the owner will be liable for three times the cost of shanty removal.

Motion by Ashton, support by Nunn, to accept the Treasurer's Report for February as printed. All ayes.

CORRESPONDENCE: (No action required).

CITIZENS WHO WISH TO SPEAK:

Due to the room being filled with citizens concerned over the proposed amendment to the Crawford County Solid Waste Management Plan, the Supervisor explained that the issue was not included on the agenda for this meeting as the information in its final format had only been received by the Township earlier this day and board members had not had the opportunity to review it.

Stancil stated that although this meeting had not been posted as a public hearing, citizens would be given the opportunity to make brief statements or ask questions.

Reports, comments and questions were heard from Marilyn Rosi, Ken Eggert, Charles Roman, Don Welser, Irene Wyman, Irene Pettyjohn, Lynnette Corlew, and Robert McLachlan.

The Clerk stated there had been several phone calls regarding the issue over the course of the day.

After lengthy discussion, a motion was made by Medler, supported by Nunn, that a Public Hearing be held on April 12, 1994, at 8 p.m., to receive and review public comment regarding the Crawford County Solid Waste Management Plan proposed by CESW. Clerk will reserve a Court Room at the Crawford County Building, if available. Ayes, five; nays, none; motion carried.

Ruth O'Mara, speaking as a citizen and taxpayer, proposed that Grayling Township needs to be re-assessed at large to avoid future factored tax rolls and across the board assessment increases.

Supervisor Stancil was directed to devise a plan and estimate a budget and time table for accomplishing this goal.

AGENDA BUSINESS:

There was no interest to attend either the Exceptional Assistant or Exceptional Customer Service seminars listed.

The following motion was presented by Medler: To allow Grayling Township to pay for two (2) seminars or workshops per calendar year, including mileage and overnight lodging, if necessary, for Grayling Township Board members, Planning Commission members, Zoning Board of Appeal members and any other Board members or Township employees the Grayling Township Board approves. Also, a two-day seminar or workshop would be two seminars or workshops. Any other seminar or workshop would be at the total expense and time of the Board member or employee.

Motion died for lack of support.

Motion by Nunn, support by Medler, to table the two seminars per year issue. All ayes, motion carried.

Motion by O'Mara, support by Ashton, to accept the Grayling Township Planning Commission recommendation to amend Grayling Township Zoning Ordinance 92-2 by re-zoning parcel 20-042-014-007-020-00 (77.07 acres) from Deferred Development (DD) to Residential Two (R-2).

STATE OF MICHIGAN

In the Matter of the Petition of the State Treasurer of the State of Michigan, in behalf of said State, for the sale of certain lands for taxes assessed thereon.

To the Circuit Court for the County of Crawford;

Douglas B. Roberts, State Treasurer of Michigan, shows unto the court:

1. That he is the State Treasurer and files this petition under the provisions of P.A. 206 of 1893, as amended, and P.A. 380 of 1965, as amended.

2. That the attached Schedule A is the tax record required by the act and contains the description of all lands in the above county upon which taxes were assessed for the years mentioned therein and have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned delinquent.

3. That the amounts opposite each description of land are (a) the total amount of delinquent taxes which may lawfully be sold at the next annual tax sale, (b) interest calculated as provided by law to the first day of May, (c) a county property tax administration fee of four percent, with a minimum of $1.00, and $10.00 for expenses, all in accordance with the act mentioned above.

4. That all of the taxes, interest and charges are valid and have remained delinquent for sufficient time to require the sale of the lands against which they were assessed at the next annual tax sale, and constitute a valid lien upon each of the parcels of land, and that a judgement be issued in favor of the State against the land for the payment of the amounts specified, and if not paid, that the lands be sold.

Therefore your plaintiff requests:

a. That within the time provided by law this court determines that the aforesaid taxes, interest, and charges are valid and constitute a valid lien upon each of the parcels of land described in Schedule A;

b. That within the time provided by law this court make a final judgement in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of land for the payment of the taxes, interest, and charges in Schedule A, and that the amounts listed in the column headed "Aggregate" shall constitute the amounts adjudged against the lands, unless so amended by this court;

c. That if the amounts in the schedule are not paid, the lands, or the portion that is necessary to satisfy the amount adjudged against the lands, shall be offered separately at the tax sale as the law provides;

d. That your plaintiff may have such other and further relief that this court finds just and equitable.

Date: February 10, 1994

STATE TREASURER

Important Notice Relative To Delinquent Taxes

Because the list of Delinquent tax lands for tax sale advertising must necessarily be made up several months ahead of time in order to get it in the printer's hands, several descriptions are included in the Crawford County list on which taxes have been paid.

If you have not paid your taxes and your land is listed for sale, you must pay at any time up until Monday, May 2, 1994.

We shall be glad to answer any other questions you may have about the tax sale here at the Treasurer's Office. 517-348-2841.

Two firefighters injured as house destroyed by fire

Two Grayling City/Township firefighters were injured when a wall collapsed on them while fighting a house fire at Lake Margrethe on Friday, March 11.

Fireman Mac Ashworth suffered a broken leg and David Bendig a sprained ankle when the wall from the fully engulfed wood and brick two-story home collapsed. They were transported by North Flight ambulance to Mercy Hospital in Grayling, where they were treated and released.

The three-alarm fire was reported at 9:41 p.m. at a residence owned by Bill Diedrich of Palm Springs, CA. The home was occupied by Eugene Havens, who was not a home when the fire broke out.

The cause of the fire has not been determined, but damage to the structure is estimated to be approximately $250,000, and another $51,000 in content value. The home was a total loss, according to Grayling fireman Dean Goss.

Fire units from Beaver Creek and Frederic assisted in bringing the fire under control in approximately one and a-half hours.

The home was located on the shore of Lake Margrethe near the main gate of the Camp Grayling Military Reservation.

New bill would require DSS to report Jan. 31 on AFDC families

The Department of Social Services (DSS) would report to the Legislature by Jan. 31 of each year on the cost of assistance programs administered by any state department, including all households receiving Aid to Families With Dependent Children, under legislation recently co-sponsored in the Michigan House by an area lawmaker.

State Rep. Allen Lowe, R-Grayling, said any meaningful welfare reform package will require a data base so officials can make informed decisions regarding the $7 million DSS budget.

"The first step in designing an effective welfare policy is to obtain accurate information about the current system," Lowe said. "Without this valuable data, we're apt to overlook key factors or act on false assumptions.

"Unfortunately, there is a tremendous void in the federal government and among state governments. At both levels, officials lack reliable information about the true costs of combined welfare packages received by the average AFDC family. Considering the costs to taxpayers, this is an astounding oversight."

Under House Bill 5410, DSS also would be required to provide each welfare recipient with an itemized statement of all benefits being received. Lowe said the individual reports would list payments made to recipients from at least 15 programs including AFDC, food stamps, energy assistance, Medicaid, and employment training stipends and subsidies.

While welfare recipients already receive an annual statement of benefits obtained under some programs, the bill would add the other forms of assistance to help give a more complete picture of each case.

"Coordination and accountability should be our watchwords. Before suggesting additional programs we should determine the effectiveness of current policies. Once the jury is in, we can make rational decisions for helping the needy while ensuring the most efficient use of tax dollars," Lowe said. "I hope this legislation can build a foundation for many of the concepts recently proposed by Governor Engler."

KIRTLAND COMMUNITY COLLEGE NEWS

Dagne Phillips, president of the Michigan Archaeological Society, will speak at Kirtland Community College on Thursday, April 7, at 8 p.m. She will be presenting Easter Island — Mysterious out-post in the South Pacific.

This presentation is free of charge and open to the public. It will be held in the Student Center Building at the college. The monthly business meeting of the High Plains Chapter of the Michigan Archaeological Society will begin at 7 p.m.

Treat your secretary, administrative assistant, or clerical support person to an informative and productive gift.

On Professional Secretaries' Day, Wednesday, April 27, Kirtland Community College will hold an American Management Association teleconference entitled "Joining the Empowered Team: AMA's 7th Annual Secretaries Briefing." The teleconference will focus on how secretaries and office support professionals can participate in the new team culture emphasizing communication and empowering the doers.

The program will cover the secretary's changing role, the impact of technology, managing conflict, combating subtle (and not so subtle) biases and prejudices, and many other topics.

The conference will be held from noon until 3 p.m. and will include lunch. Cost is $29 per person, or $25 per person if three or more people from the same organization register. Managers are encouraged to attend with their support staff.

Farmland and open space preservation program seeks land development rights

The Department of Natural Resources Farmland and Open Space Preservation Program is seeking land available for development rights acquisition.

The DNR-administered Farmland and Open Space Preservation Act, 1974 PA 116, provides fund to the DNR to purchase development rights of land which is deemed by the state land use agency to be critical or unique. The definition of critical and unique land areas and the criteria for acquiring development rights were defined and adopted by the Natural Resources Commission on June 13, 1991, and amended March 3, 1993. In general, the DNR seeks to purchase development rights when it is important to the state to preserve the natural character of a property, but it is not necessary to acquire a property in fee. The value paid for the development rights of a selected property is determined by appraisal.

Through this program, any individual, group or organization may nominate parcels of land for development rights acquisition by the DNR. Properties with unusual scenic beauty, or which possess a significant species, natural feature, historic site, or unique farmland in danger from development are of special interest.

Although no appropriations for this program currently exist, the DNR is seeking nominations in order to identify potential acquisition sites for the future.

Local dance team brings home honors

The Louise Tournaud School of Dance, Metamere Competition Team, started their year out with a bang when they traveled to Novi, on March 12.

The Dance Educators competition was held at the Novi High School, with 167 dance numbers being judged. The Grayling team took down 16 dance numbers and returned with 16 trophies.

Judging was difficult, as 1,200 dancers from throughout Michigan and Canada competed.

All numbers were choreographed by Louise Tournaud in jazz, pointe, lyrical and gymnastics. Twenty-one of the students performed and then attended workshops all day Sunday from some of the top professional dance instructors in the country.

The local dance team plans to attend the "I Love Dance" competition in May and Starpower in June.

Hunting & Fishing Weekly Update

Spring fishing is here. . .

According to the calendar, Spring arrived last weekend, so the sportsman's fancy turns now to Spring fishing, such as steel head, and sometimes, brown trout. Many rivers that empty into the Great Lakes are open all year, and we now start to get "runs" in!! There are some fish which are in all year, you can catch them on flies, bouncing a Nymph along the bottom, a wet skunk, or spawn bags, they all work well. Try the lower Platte River near Honor, which is open up to M-22 Bridge.
